PG Department of Commerce organises field visit to J&K Bank for students

Commerce Dept students and faculty visiting J&K Bank.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: P. G. Department of Commerce organized an insightful field visit to J&K Bank (Town Hall Branch) on February 6th, 2024, exclusively for the students of M Comfourth semester. The visit aimed at providing the students with a practical understanding of financial operations and management.

Under the guidance of Rakesh Gupta, Branch Head, J&K Bank (Town Hall), students had the opportunity to interact with industry professionals, which delve into various facets of banking & finance, gaining firsthand experience in areas such as investment banking, risk management, credit analysis and financial advisory services.

The hands-on-experience provides a unique opportunity for the students to bridge the gap between theoretical class learning and real world applications in the dynamic field of finance enhancing their understanding of the subjects.

Rakesh Gupta expressed his enthusiasm for the field study of the students and felt delighted to nurture the next generation of finance professionals.

Dr. Jeevan Jyoti, Head of the Department congratulated the students and emphasized the significance of such initiatives in preparing students for successful careers in finance.

This field study programme not only compliments our rigorous academic curriculum but also equips our students with the practical skill and insights necessary to thrive in today's competitive financial landscape.

The students had enriching experiential learning about financial management in a dynamic business environment.

Dr. Jeevan Jyoti expressed her gratitude to J&K Bank for their warm hospitality and willingness to contribute to the education and professional development of future business leaders. Such initiatives play a crucial role in preparing students for the challenges of the corporate world. Dr. Sumeet Kour and Dr. Deepti Abrol coordinated the whole event.

Veteran broadcaster Farooq Nazki dies at 83

STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: Veteran broadcaster, poet and Sahitya Akademi winner Mir Mohammad Farooq Nazki died at a hospital in Katra on Tuesday. He was 83.

Nazki, who held several important positions in All India Radio Kashmir and Doordarshan, died after suffering a heart attack on Tuesday night, family sources said.

He is survived by two daughters and a son.

He was not keeping well for the past few years and had moved to live with his son in Jammu, the sources said.

In 1995, Nazki was awarded the Sahitya Akademi award in Kashmiri for his poetry book Naar Hyutun Kanzal Wanas (Fire in the eyelashes).

Nazki, who was also the media advisor to two chief ministers -- Farooq Abdullah and Omar Abdullah -- will be laid to rest at the Malkha graveyard here on Wednesday, the sources said.

They said the body was being taken from Jammu to Srinagar.

People from various quarters have condoled the passing away of the veteran journalist.

"The passing away of a qalander is not to be mourned; his fulfilling life is to be celebrated. For he has left this station after enriching it in many ways. A societal loss which is a personal bereavement. RIP Mir Mohammed Farooq Nazki (1940 - 2024)," former minister Haseeb Drabu, who is also the son of the deceased, wrote on X.

Chairman DPAP, Ghulam Nabi Azad on Tuesday expressed deep sorrow at the passing of the renowned poet, broadcaster Farooq Nazki.

In a statement, Azad said, "I am deeply saddened to learn about the demise of the living legend Farooq Nazki Sahib. His literary brilliance and media presence were unparalleled. His contribution in the field of broadcasting and literature will have an everlasting impact on our cultural and literary treasure."

Azad said, "Nazki Sahib was personally known to me, and we had the pleasure to read his poetry. His words were not only profound but also reflective of the richness of our cultural heritage. His passing leaves a void that will be felt deeply by all who knew him."

"My wife Shamim Azad joins me in condoling the demise of this great son of the soil," added Azad.

At this difficult time, Azad extended his heartfelt condolences to Farooq Nazki's family, friends, and admirers. He prays for peace for the departed soul and offers support to his grieving loved ones.

Youth 4 Panun Kashmir chalks out future plan of action

STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: The newly-elected Executive Committee of the Youth For Panun Kashmir, a frontline Kashmiri Pandit Youth Organisation, in its first Executive Committee meeting defined its future plan of action and enlisted the roles & responsibilities for each of the Committee member.

Vithal Chowdhary, President, Y4PK, reiterated the Organization's commitment to the "Margdarshan Resolution 1991", while enlisting the important tools necessary to achieve the goal of Homeland.

He said, first and foremost, they needed to have their genocide recognized by the Government by introducing Genocide Bill.

Chowdhary further put forth that the Organization needed to create a national sentiment across India in support of Homeland.

He mentioned that Y4PK had already carried out a successful, similar movement called "Ek Bharat Abhiyan", at the end of which, more than 200 organizations offered their written support to the cause of Kashmiri Pandits.

He finally advised the members to adopt an honest & dedicated approach towards the community's cause.

Jugal blames NC, Congress, PDP for exploiting people of J&K

STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: Member of Parliament Lok Sabha Jugal Poonch Jugal Kishore Sharma, while speaking in Parliament on Tuesday, blamed National Conference (NC), Congress and PDP for exploiting Pahari speaking people of Jammu and Kashmir.

He said that these three political parties are real dynasts which always tried to kill the sentiments of people of Jammu and Kashmir.

He said that they always played conspiracy & betrayed people of Jammu and Kashmir by their kingship and injustice policy.

He said that they only worked for flourishing their families but after formation of Modi Government in Center in 2014 their rule came to an end. People realized that now justice would be given to them, he added.

Jugal, while hailing Prime Minister Narendra Modi's government in center, said that it is only Modi government which have taken bold step in favour of Pahari speaking people and decided to provide ST Status to them.

He said that this was their genuine right which should be given before but due to NC, Congress and PDP Pahari speaking people always deprived off their genuine rights.

He while targeting these three families said that that they always used people for their vote bank since 70 years and never taken any step in their favour.

He said that Minister for Home Affairs Amit Shah arrived at Rajouri & Kashmir personally on 04 of October 2022 and felt their painful feelings and decided to give them reservation.

He said that in Modi Government political reservation and ownership rights were provided to Gujjar Bakkarwals and Gaddi Sippi people who were fighting since 50 years.
