CS launches new website Dept of Culture STATE TIMES NEWS JAMMU: Chief Secretary, Atal Dulloo, on Monday launched the newly developed official website of the Department of Culture. The portal has been designed to provide comprehensive information on the cultural heritage, activities, and initiatives of the Department. The website was launched in presence of Principal Secretary, Culture Department; Secretary, IT, ED, Mubarak Mandi Heritage Society; Secretary, J&K AACC&L and other concerned officers. The website, https://culture.jk.gov.in, serves as a single digital window for citizens, artists, researchers, and institutions to access departmental information, cultural resources, and public services in a transparent and user-friendly manner. A key upcoming feature of the portal as described by Principal Secretary, Culture, Brij Mohan Sharma is the Online Auditorium and Hall Booking Facilities belonging to the Department which will allow users to check availability and submit booking requests digitally. The system is aimed at ensuring transparency, efficiency, and ease of access to cultural infrastructure across the Union Territory. The portal offers detailed sections on departmental profile, divisions, legislation, projects, and both tangible and intangible cultural heritage. It also provides real-time updates on events, orders, circulars, and official notifications.
