tiatives in equipping teachers to meet the evolving demands of higher education, particularly in the digital era. He lauded the Department of Buddhist Studies for its dedicated engagement in advanced research and scholarship in Buddhist philosophy, art, and culture, and emphasized the importance of continuous professional development to maintain academic excellence.

Providing an overview of the workshop, Ph.D. Research Scholars Ginyi Sharma and Ruchika Sharma introduced the distinguished resource persons and presented a detailed report of the academic sessions. The workshop featured nineteen eminent scholars from premier institutions including Jawaharlal Nehru University, Panjab University, Nava Nalanda Mahavihara, the Central University of Jammu, and the University of Jammu.

Addressing the participants, Prof. Pandita commended the Department for organising a well-structured and impactful programme and urged faculty members to apply the acquired insights in their respective institutions.

Earlier, Prof. Mohd. Reyaz Ahmad, Head of the Department of Buddhist Studies, welcomed the dignitaries and reiterated the department's commitment to academic dialogue and professional growth.

Over 30 participants from the University of Jammu and various degree colleges across Jammu & Kashmir attended the workshop.

Certificates were distributed during the valedictory session, followed by a vote of thanks by Dr. Vivek Sharma.
