APS BD Bari celebrates Foundational Wing Annual Day with fervour

STATE TIMES NEWS
SAMBA: Army Public School (APS) BD Bari celebrated the Annual Day of its Foundational Wing with great pomp and splendour under the mentorship of Dr. Neeta Rawal, Principal, APS BD Bari. The vibrant celebration was aptly titled "Carnival of the Festivals", reflecting the spirit of unity in diversity and the rich cultural heritage of India. The Chief Guest on the occasion was Neemisha Rajput, Chairperson, Child Welfare Committee, Samba. The programme commenced with a mesmerising welcome song that set a joyful and festive tone for the event. Priya Charak, Headmistress (Primary Wing) in her address, highlighted the importance of foundational education in students' life. The cultural extravaganza was a beautiful amalgamation of vibrant performances depicting the festival fervour of India. The tiny tots of Balvatika enthralled the audience with thematic presentations showcasing the journey of Lord Rama, the colourful celebration of Onam, energetic Dandiya, the sparkling spirit of Diwali, the harmony of Eid, and many more festive traditions. Each performance was marked by innocence, confidence, and impeccable coordination, leaving the audience spellbound. The Chief Guest, Neemisha Rajput, assured the parents that their children are in safe and nurturing hands at the school. She emphasized the institution's unwavering commitment to the safety, well-being and holistic development of every child. She urged the parents to remain vigilant and highlighted the importance of children's security.

CBSE Board Class X Examination begins with prayers, blessings

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The CBSE Board Class X Examinations commenced on Monday in a spiritually uplifting and encouraging atmosphere at the school campus. To mark this significant academic milestone, a special morning assembly was organized to bless and motivate the students as they stepped into this important phase of their academic journey. The assembly began with a solemn prayer seeking divine grace, wisdom, and confidence for all the students appearing in the board examinations. The serene environment reflected the collective hopes and aspirations of the entire school fraternity. Neelam Dahuja, the Patron of JKPS Kijwani, graced the occasion and conveyed her blessings to the students. As a gesture of goodwill and encouragement, she distributed pens and sweets among the students. A ceremonial nariyal was also presented, symbolizing auspicious beginnings and success. Her gracious presence and blessings added warmth and positivity to the occasion. Shashi Choudhary, Director JK Educational Society, addressed the students and extended her heartfelt best wishes. She encouraged them to remain calm, confident, and focused while attempting their papers. Emphasizing the value of discipline and perseverance, she reminded them that sincere effort and self-belief are the true keys to success. Principal Rajesh Rathore also spoke on the occasion, motivating the students to approach each examination with clarity of thought and determination. He reassured them of the unwavering support of their teachers and urged them to trust their preparation and give their best. The special assembly concluded on an inspiring note, with the entire school community coming together to wish the Class X students outstanding success. The atmosphere was filled with optimism, confidence, and heartfelt blessings as the students embarked on their CBSE Board Examination journey.
