

BJYM J&K stages protest against Congress & Rahul Gandhi over AI Summit Incident in New Delhi

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The Jammu Kashmir unit of the Bharatiya Janata Yuva Morcha (BJYM) on Saturday held a protest in Jammu, raising concerns over the reported conduct of certain Congress workers during the recent AI Summit event in New Delhi.

Congress workers on Rahul Gandhi's guidance went half naked in the event and tried to bring shame to the nation in a global event at New Delhi.

The demonstration was led by BJYM Jammu Kashmir President Arun Prabhat, who was joined by party members and local youth workers.

Protesters assembled in the city to express their objections and called for apology from Congress MP Rahul Gandhi in public and political discourse.

Addressing the gathering, Arun Prabhat said "When the nation is striving to position itself as a global technology powerhouse, such conduct only serves the interests of those who wish to see India falter. Political opposition is a democratic right, but sabotaging India's global image is not." MLA Jammu East Yudhvir Sethi also joined the protest and expressed solidarity with the youth wing members and also called for apology from Rahul Gandhi.

Several BJYM office bearers were present at the demonstration, including Vice Presidents Abhishek Slatia, Sanjay Sharma, Luvdeva Sharma, and Dikshant Sharma; Media Incharge Abhiudit Koushal; Sonaal Kakkar; Secretaries Sagar Singh Kotwal, Treasurer Rakesh Gupta, Anil Rakwal, Abhineesh Khajuria, Nipun Malhotra, Rahul Pradhan; District President Jammu Akshat Khajuria and District President Jammu North Rajat Singh Manhas, along with their respective teams were also present at the protest.

BJYM representatives reiterated that they would continue to raise issues through democratic means if Rahul Gandhi and Congress party fails to apologise in front of the whole nation publicly.

SP South Jammu holds Police-Public Meet at Bathindi to foster harmony during Ramadan

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: As part of sustained community outreach initiatives of Jammu Police during the holy month of Ramzan, a Police-Community Partnership Group (PCPG) meeting was convened on Saturday Bathindi by SP City South Jammu, Dr Ajay Sharma, SDPO South, SIO PS Bahu Fort, and the newly joined I/C PP Bathindi, PSI Ajesh Jamwal.

The meeting witnessed the participation of respected religious leaders, senior citizens, and other prominent members of the local community, reflecting strong public engagement and trust. At the outset, the officers warmly welcomed the participants and underscored the critical importance of communal harmony, mutual respect, and coordinated efforts to ensure a peaceful and spiritually enriching Ramzan.

During the interaction, the

newly appointed Incharge of Police Post Bathindi was formally introduced to the gathering to strengthen accessibility and communication between the police and the public. The officers emphasized proactive policing, enhanced patrolling, active response to public calls, and close coordination with community representatives to maintain law and order during the holy month.

The primary focus of the meeting was to reinforce the message of universal brotherhood, love, affection, spirituality, humanity, and religious harmony during Ramzan. Detailed deliberations were held on comprehensive security arrangements, effective traffic regulation, crowd management during peak prayer timings, facilitation of late-night movements for Sehri and Taraweeh, and prompt redressal of public grievances. Special emphasis was laid on maintaining a peaceful atmosphere and ensuring public convenience without any disruption to religious activities.

Community members appreciated the proactive approach of the police and assured their wholehearted cooperation in upholding peace, brotherhood, and social harmony. The meeting concluded on a constructive note with a shared commitment between the police and the public to work collectively towards a safe, secure, and harmonious Ramzan.

Jasrotia lays foundation stone for PWD road construction in Kalyari

MLA Jasrota Rajiv Jasrotia laying the foundation stone for the construction of the Link Road.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JASROTA: In a significant step towards improving the infrastructure and connectivity in the region, MLA Jasrota Rajiv Jasrotia laid the foundation stone for the construction of the Link rounding areas. Speaking on the occasion, MLA Jasrotia emphasized the importance of road infrastructure in fostering regional development. He stated, "Roads are the lifeline of any region, and this project is a testament to the government's commitment to ensuring better connectivity for our people. The construction of this link road will not only ease transportation but also pave the way for economic opportunities and growth for the local population." Jasrotia further assured the residents that the project would be completed in a time-bound manner with adherence to quality standards.

MLA Bishnah starts road macadamisation work

STATE TIMES NEWS
BISHNAH: MLA Bishnah, Dr. Rajeev Kumar Bhagat, today started road macadamisation (road strengthening and surfacing) works in the constituency worth ₹74 lakh.

The works include macadamisation of a 9-kilometre-long road from Kothi Morh in Deoli to Rathana. In addition, the road from KC Morh to RKS Public School, Bishnah, and the link road connecting the Agriculture Office, Bishnah, have also been taken up under the City and Town Plan. Around ₹48 lakh will be spent on the Deoli-Rathana road, while ₹25.16 lakh will be spent on the road from KC Morh to RKS Public School and the Agriculture Office link road.

Addressing a large gathering in Deoli, Dr. Rajeev Kumar Bhagat said that his dream is to make Bishnah an ideal constituency where people can easily access basic facilities like education, healthcare, good roads, drinking water, and irrigation facilities for farmers near their homes.

He said that a strong road network is his top priority because good roads help people transport goods from one place to another easily. This will benefit farmers and traders by making it easier for them to sell their products and will strengthen the local economy, especially in border areas. Among those present on the occasion were Rafiq Ahmed (AEE, R&B), Pankaj Bawaria (AE, R&B), Abhishek Jamwal (Mandal President Bishnah Rural), Arjun

Singh (General Secretary), Shivam Sadotra (Additional IT Incharge, BJP Yuva Morcha & Kashmir), Tinka Panch, Booth President Ashok Kumar, former Sarpanch Surjeet Sonu, retired Sub-Inspector Kasturi Lal, Subhash Chandra, and other senior party leaders and local residents.

Chairman DLSA Jammu reviews implementation of 'Mediation for the Nation 2.0' campaign

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Chairman District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) and Principal District & Sessions Judge Jammu R.N. Watal on Saturday presided over a meeting with mediators of District Jammu at his Office Chambers.

Discussions centred on the campaign's core objectives including promoting Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) mechanisms, alleviating court pendency and equipping citizens with swift, cost-effective tools for amicable conflict resolution. Mediators contributed insights on outreach initiatives, virtual mediation platforms and seamless integration with local legal aid programmes.

The Chairman underscored the campaign's pivotal role in cultivating a mediation-friendly culture. He remarked, "Mediation for the Nation Campaign

2.0 represents a transformative advancement in justice delivery which is swift, voluntary and amicable. DLSA Jammu remains steadfast in empowering our mediators and extending these services to every corner of the district."

The meeting concluded with a commitment to collaborative efforts involving mediators, bar associations and community stakeholders to amplify the campaign's reach and efficacy.
