

Manjeet Club wins Poonch Volleyball title

Volleyball match in progress at Poonch.

STATE TIMES NEWS

POONCH: Shaheed Manjeet Club won the District Poonch Volleyball Championship beating Pinto Club in the final played at Sports Stadium, here.

Championship was organised by District Poonch Volleyball Association under the aegis of Volleyball Association J&K.

Manjeet Club made it a straight but close sets win with scoring being 25-20, 25-22 and 25-23. Musharaf and Harshit Raina played well for winning team while Akashish and Ritik defended well from Pinto Club.

Principal Government Degree College (GDC) Poonch, Mohd Azam was the Chief Guest, who interacted with the finalist teams and complimented the winners.

Among the guests of honour were DySP Headquarters,

Nawaz Chouhan, DYSSO Pooch, Mohd Qasim, Incharge Manager Sports Stadium and Nirdosh Sharma. Other prominent present were Narinder Singh (ZPEO), Kulwant Singh (PEM), Narinder Singh (PEM), Vijay Kumar (PEM), Dr. Udesh Paul Sharma, Bal Krishan Sharma, Pawan Kumar (Lecturer), Pervaiz Ahmed Afridi and Rakesh Kumar.

The final was officiated by the technical panel including Sorab Sharma, DK Raina, Jatinde Pal, Ramire Tariq, Pawan Deep Singh and Intiaz Ahmed. Later, organising secretary, Neeraj Sharma and convenor DK Raina extended thanks to distinguished guests, officials and participating teams for the support in successful conduct of the tournament.

Principal Government Degree College (GDC) Poonch, Mohd Azam was the Chief Guest, who interacted with the finalist teams and complimented the winners.

Among the guests of honour were DySP Headquarters,

Rajouri Volleyball trials on March 14

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: District Rajouri Volleyball Association shall conduct boys' selection trials at District Police Lines ground on March 14 from 11:00 AM onwards.

As per a handout issued here today, those who are born on January 1, 2003 are only eligible for the selection process. Such players have been advised to bring along Date of Birth Certificate in original.

The selected district team shall participate in the UT Junior Volleyball Championship?? to be held in Jammu from March 18 to 20.

The selection committee comprised Khalid Hussain, Sajad Majeed, Dr. Aysaan Qureshi and Amit Sharma.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The IRP 19th on Wednesday the overall championship trophy in the three-day Inter-Battalion Sports Meet of J&K Armed Police that concluded at Gulshan Ground sports arena, here.

The IRP athletes won highest 46 medals in various team and individuals events of men and women categories.

Constable Rohit Kumar of IRP 7th was adjudged best male athlete for his splendid performance of seven gold medals while Constable Sheelu Devi of IRP 15th was declared best among women for winning five gold and one bronze medal.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief guest, who along with Director Police Academy Udhampur, Dr S D Singh; ADGP Security, Mukesh Singh and IGP Armed (Jammu Zone), Danesh Rana gave away the title trophies.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief

trophy.

Among other senior officers present were SSP Jammu, SSP Traffic, SSP Security Jammu.

While speaking on the occasion, the ADGP, AK Choudhary said that J&K Police have over the years been organizing Inter Battalion Sports Meet as part of its Annual Sports Calendar. The aim of conducting such meet was to find young, energetic and outstanding talent who in future will be representing J&K Armed Police in the forthcoming Inter Zonal Sports Meet besides will also prove their mettle at State and National level tournaments.

Earlier, the IRP 14th remained champion in the Cross Country event.

In the valedictory of the meet, ADGP Armed, AK Choudhary was the chief trophy.

&lt;p