NITI Aayog, Bharti Foundation organise CONVOKE 2022-a national research symposium

191 Govt school teachers submit research papers from 26 states

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: CONVOKE 2021-22, a national research symposium organized in collaboration with NITI Aayog and Bharti Foundation, the philanthropic arm of Bharti Enterprises, to encourage teachers and head teachers from Government schools to write research papers.

CONVOKE 2021-2022 the first ever national level symposium was launched on 9th December 2021 to provide a platform for teachers, head/ principals of government schools and educational administrators to help improve learning outcomes. This platform provides teachers a space to discuss, collaborate and exchange ideas and further represent it in the form of a research paper.

Teachers and principals from states across India applied with their micro research papers as per the format provided. A total of 191 research papers were received from across 26 states and UTs of India.

NITI Aayog and Bharti Foundation will evaluate the papers basis a pre-defined matrix followed by shortlisting 16 papers that will be presented on 30th March 2022. Later, top three papers will be awarded in a valedictory session at a National level.

In keeping with the National Education Policy 2020, this one-of-a-kind event strives to improve student learning outcomes. Research papers were received from states including Andhra Pradesh, Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Bihar, Chandigarh, Chhattisgarh, Delhi, Gujarat, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Ladakh, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Odisha, Puducherry, Punjab, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Telangana, Tripura, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal and Sikkim.

On 21st March 2009 while tracking an infiltrating column in the thick Forests of Kupwara Sector of North Kashmir, Havaldar Rakesh Kumar's troop came under heavy fire by terrorists resulting in serious casualties including team leader. Undaunted, he took the command of this situation and deployed his squad quickly engaging the terrorists with effective machine gun fire, displaying indomitable courage with complete disregard to personal safety. He crawled to wounded commandos under heavy fire and pulled three of them to safety. In this process he received multiple gunshot wounds but leading from the front he charged firing on the terrorists lobbing Grenades & killed two of them.

This selfless and courage act diverted the terrorists and led to safety of his comrades. Havaldar Rakesh Kumar displayed Esprit-

De-Corps. Camaraderie and fortitude & made supreme sacrifice in the highest traditions of Indian Army while fighting the terrorists.

On this Day Rakesh Kumar attained along with Major Mohit Sharma and 7 soldiers while fighting terrorists in this operation. Total 17 terrorists were killed in this long operation.

On this occasion DDC Chairman Samba, Keshav Dutt Sharma, Ex- Minister Surjit Singh Slathia, Sarpanch Sunil Chaudhary, DySP Ajay Anand, SHO Samba, Inspector Deepak Jasrotia and the people of the village along with the army personnel were present.

On the occasion Krishna Kumari mother of the Jamwal was honored by the Club as Super Citizen of the town, who presented a fridge to the club for facilitating cold water to senior citizens during coming summer. Dr. Sumer Khajuria awarded Doctorate by Human Rights Commission was also honored on the occasion. Dr. Rashpal Singh of the IT cell of Rammagar branch of the Club while speaking focused on the role of young generation towards the senior citizens. Raj Guru General- Secretary of the club conducted the proceedings of the function attended by large number of citizenry from civil society, Co-members of the club (better halves of the member) apart from club executive body, advisory board and members.
