Modi Govt zero tolerant towards terrorism, its supporters: Neelam

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: Senior Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leader and former MLA, Neelam Langeh has said that BJP stands fully committed to eliminate terrorism from Kashmir Valley.

In a statement issued to media, Neelam Langeh said that continuation of NIA raids and anti-terrorism operations in the Kashmir Valley shows that Modi Govt's absolute zero tolerance towards militancy and all the overt or covert supporters of terrorists. He lauded the Govt and the security forces for their intensified operations against the terrorists which prove their determination not to relent till the last terrorist is annihilated in J&K. He said that the government has been maintaining 'zero tolerance' policy against all forms of terrorism. He asserted that for curbing terrorism in India especially in J&K 'zero tolerance' policy has been adopted by the nation. He said that the Govt has always been vocal against terrorism and has taken legal actions against the terrorists. He said that this resolve of the Govt gets further proved by the decision of attaching properties of those supporting terrorism in Jammu and Kashmir. The senior Bharatiya Janata Party leader accused the valley based political leaders of misusing Art 370 for their own personal interests and mercilessly looted the resources of Jammu and Kashmir at the cost of the common masses by befooling them. He appealed to the people of Kashmir to join and support the mainstream and pro-national parties for the overall development of Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory. He said that the unprecedented developments witnessed by the people on ground speak a lot about the multiple initiatives taken by LG Manoj Sinha led UT Administration in complete synchronization with PM Modi led Union Govt. He said that this is ample proof of Govt's commitment for the overall development of Jammu and Kashmir especially its far flung and remote areas and the welfare of the people living in these areas.
