by locals. It provides the user with an in house 90% + oxygen cylinder filling capability.

It further provides the medical hospitals deployed in forward areas with back up supplies of oxygen enriched medical air to manage surge and exigency demands, whilst reducing the transportation and availability issues.

The MOGS unit comprises of an Oxygen generation unit, a flexible reticulation network, 90% + oxygen cylinders and transportation/storage cages.

The noble initiative certainly will boost the inherent capability to combat shortcomings and strengthen our resolve in developing military capacity & capability in consonance with Nation building. This will go a long way to strengthen the medical infrastructure of Northern Command and the UT of J&K.

Jasrotia thanks HM for revival of VDCs under new name of VDGs

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Abhijeet Jasrotia on Wednesday thanked the decision of Home Minister (HM)

Amit Shah for revival of Village Defence Committee (VDC) under the new name of Village Defence Guard (VDG). "Long time apathy with these people who played a key role in fighting against terrorist got justice. We should not forget that terrorist who used automatic weapons at that time were given a tough fight by these village soldiers who were ready to sacrifice their life for their nation," Abhijeet Jasrotia said. Not only this, he said, these soldiers who were equipped with normal guns proved nightmare for well trained loaded with automatic weapons Pak sponsored terrorist who killed many innocents in hilly areas of Rajouri, Poonch and Doda Belt.

Irony of situation was this that they were neglected by all the previous Govt's both at state and centre as a result their families suffered a lot, he said adding that by delivering justice and recognising their valour Amit Shah proved that BJP stand with nationalist people and Sabka Saath Sabka Bishwas is not just a slogan but is a reality on ground. Jasrotia thanked Dr Jitendra Singh at PMO, Ravinder Raina (BJP J&K President) and Sunil Sharma (General Secretary) and all others who took cognizance of the matter and kept on highlighting the issue time to time.
