STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: To encourage the students of slum areas and motivate them to take part in sports, cultural and other allied activities, the Director Youth Services and Sports, J&K, Gazanfar Ali presented sports kits to the students of Sangarash Vidya Kendra, Maratha Colony, Sector-5 Extension Trikuta Nagar, here on Wednesday.

The Director Sports was accompanied by the Joint Director Youth Services and Sports, Bashir Ahmed; Administrator Bharat Scouts & Guides and District Youth Services and Sports

Director Sports, Gazanfar Ali presenting sports kits to Sangarash Vidya Kendra.

Officer Jammu, Sunkhdev Raj Sharma during his visit to this unique Primary School, run by a retired Government Lecturer and social activist, Kanchan

Sharma, giving free education to the poor and down-trodden kids of the labourers from Maharashtra, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar etc.

Addressing the children,

Mr Gazanfar Ali encouraged and motivated them to take part in games and sports from the primary classes only for yielding better results in future.

"Sports and games help children not to derail from the mainstream and not to fall prey to drugs and other social evils. Moreover, sportspersons are always the messengers of peace and harmony," said Director Sports.

He further said that promoting such institutions, which provide free education to the students of slum areas is the need of the hour.

Gazanfar termed Kanchan Sharma's service a yeoman's job and lavished praise on her for this noble initiative.

Kanchan Sharma informed that there are 108 students in this Government recognised primary institution, which she has started way back in 2009.

She said that she doesn't charge any fee from the students and imparts teaching free of cost and manages the expenses out of her own pocket.

On the occasion, Director Sports also honoured the scouts and guides of the school.
