

DC Ramban suspends absentee teachers; withholds salary of ZEO

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
RAMBAN: Deputy Commissioner Ramban, Mussarat Islam on Friday suspended two teachers, found absent on the very first day of re-opening of schools, besides withheld the salary of ZEO Ramban for misusing his power. Nissar Ahmed Teacher GPS Seri and Pritam Singh Teacher UPS Koradera, attached in GPS Seri were attached at their substantive place of posting during their period of suspension.

The DC also ordered withholding of salary of Zonal Education Officer Ramban for misusing his official powers.

"After examining the report submitted by the Chief Education Officer, Ramban on news telecasted on a news channel, it is amply clear the Zonal Education Officer, Ramban, Mr Hafeezullah has misused his official powers and tried to shield the erring teachers by way of attaching them on his own, without seeking proper approval from the competent authority" an order issued by the DC Ramban reads.

It was mentioned in the order that teacher Nayeem Ahmed was attached to the City Middle School Ramban by the ZEO and Teacher Nissar Ahmed was absent from duty without taking prior permission from competent authority. Besides, ZEO Ramban has also attached Pritam Singh in the said school as per report of CEO Ramban by violating the rules'.

The DC also constituted an enquiry committee headed by the Additional Deputy Commissioner and Principal, Higher Secondary School, Ramban and Headmaster GHS Ramban as members with direction to submit the report by or before March 10, 2022.

The DC also withheld the salary of ZEO, Ramban till further order.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Surinsar Mansar Development Authority in collaboration with Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University on Friday organised a Heritage Walk to Manwal, the ancient capital of Dogra region.

Held under the aegis of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the heritage walk at historic Babore temples at Manwal witnessed an enthusiastic gathering of historians, academicians, artists and students.

The Heritage Walk was flagged-off by Gurvinder Jeet Singh, CEO SMDA, and Prof Ashok Sharma, Dean, F&S, SMVDU that covered five temple sites spread over one kilometer.

During the walk, followed by Heritage Baithak and Heritage Lectures, the participants were made aware about the prominent historical, architectural and cultural aspects of the temples at Manwal that are being maintained by Archaeological Survey of India (ASI).

These temples reflect the zenith of Nagara temple building movement in North India.

Jai Karan Singh and other Experts from Archaeological Survey of India, J&K Circle briefed everyone about the historic essence and architectural grandeur of the temples, namely, Devi Bhagwati Temple, Dera Babore, Kala Dera One and Two, and Dera Temple.

CEO SMDA emphasized on the need for preserving the cultural heritage of Jammu region.

Nagendra Singh Jamwal, Registrar SMVDU, emphasized the need for organizing more such events and giving more exposure to the students to the culture and heritage of Jammu region.

The students of School of Architecture and Landscape Design and School of Philosophy and Culture, who were the main participants of the event hailing from different parts of the country, evinced keen interest in the ornate carvings and style of temple building.

They captured the temples through photographs, videos, sketches, and said that these temples deserve to be included in the UNESCO heritage sites.
