

Sanjay Leela Bhansali explains why Alia Bhatt and NOT Deepika Padukone was his perfect Gangubai Kathiawadi

Sanjay Leela Bhansali has worked with both his favorite actresses Deepika Padukone and Alia Bhatt. But when you ask him who is his favorite he cannot pick one. In an interaction with Bollywood Hungama, he was asked a fan question about his perspective for both his heroines Alia and Deepika. To which he said, "They are different people. They have different approaches, they have different heights. They have different voices, they have different body language. They have a different approach to cinema. All that put together... Deepika is a beautiful girl, a wonderful actor. For me, Alia is a very beautiful girl, again a wonderful actor. But if I have to do Bajirao Mastani then I will have to have Deepika, and if I'm doing Gangubai, I will have to have Alia play it. So, each one has the power that they exude when they find a role that suits them, and you cannot give the wrong role to the wrong actor." Indeed no one but the director knows which actor will play his story well.

He further added, "Not that in the same breath I can say that Alia could not have played Mastani or Deepika could not have played Gangubai. But I feel what casting I've done, keeping their essence, is the right casting. So, what Alia did for this role, only Alia could have done. And what Deepika did in those roles only Deepika could have done." Alia Bhatt's Gangubai Kathiawadi was released last week in the shares ad it receive a mixed response from the audiences. Many were hailing Alia's performance while others thought she is miscast, while our reviewer called Alia Bhatt the perfect Gangubai Kathiawadi and her career-best performance. Alia gave her sweat and blood to get into the skin of Gangubai. It was Alia's dream to be Bhansali's heroine.

Did Ananya Panday just confirm her relationship with Ishaan Khatter?

Ananya Panday and Ishaan Khatter are right now one of the hottest couples in tinsel town. The reports of them dating have been doing the rounds ever since they were featured together in the film titled Khaali Peeli. Though the film didn't manage to make a mark, their chemistry did. Ananya and Ishaan are rumored to be a couple and lately few instances prove that they are very much in a relationship. Ananya attended Shahid Kapoor's birthday bash and the pictures shared by the star himself showed she is a part of the family. And now in her recent interview, when Ananya was quizzed if she is single, the actor smartly chose to ignore it by answering that she can't hear this question.

Ananya neither denied nor accepted she is single and her reaction has only added fuel to the conjectures of her dating Ishaan. Seems like the Gehraiyaan actress is all set to make it official soon. After saying she didn't hear this question, she added, "I am happy." In another part of her interview Ananya was asked who is her favorite male co-stars so far, she said, Ishaan and added, "But all my male co-stars have been fantastic, and Sid (Siddhant Chaturvedi) is getting a second chance in Kho Gaye

Hum Kahaan." Talking about Ishaan she said that she would like to work with him again, "He is someone who has been a very big influence on me in terms of cinema and acting.
