Opposition creating unwarranted hue & cry over Ukraine issue: Langar

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Sham Lal Langar, Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Convener Trade and Industries Cell, Jammu and Kashmir has lauded the Prime Minister Narendra Modi led Union Govt for rising to the occasion and evacuating Indians including students stranded in war torn Ukraine.

In a statement issued to media here today, Sham Langar said that it is really a proud moment for people of this nation that Modi Government is being lauded worldwide for making all possible best efforts in evacuating Indians stranded in Ukraine. He said that as per the national and international media reports, even the citizens of Pakistan and Turkey are waiving Indian Flags for their safe passage out of the war-torn country. He asserted that this in itself proves that how strongly the nation has been represented by the Modi Govt at the international level so much so that today India has become a force to reckon with globally.

The senior BJP leader said that Modi Govt took a commendable timely decision and sent four Union Ministers to Ukraine's neighboring countries who have been involved in relentless efforts to ensure that every Indian gets safely evacuated out of the war zone and back to their homes in India.

Sham Langar lashed out at the opposition leaders for unnecessarily crying hoarse over the issue despite nation having taken optimum measures to ensure safe evacuation of its citizens. He accused the opposition of presenting a disappointing picture of India by resorting to such unwarranted behaviour and attitude. He said that these opposition leaders have not taken their decimation by the people positively and it is out of utter frustration they have become sadistic and derive pleasure in criticizing every decision of the Union Govt even if such decisions are in the best interest of the nation and globally acclaimed and lauded.

The senior BJP leader said that people at large do fully acknowledge the exceptional achievements of the PM Modi led Govt at the Centre and the results in the ongoing elections and thereafter are undoubtedly going to prove the undaunted faith, trust and confidence reposed in the Pradhan Sevak PM and the Bharatiya Janata Party.

People suffering due to wrong policies of BJP Govt: Congress

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: District Congress Committee, Jammu Rural, today said that the general public is suffering badly on account of economic slowdown, unemployment and unbridled inflation due to wrong policies of the BJP led government at the centre. In this context, District Congress Committee, Jammu Rural, held a meeting at village Gajansoo, on the outskirts of Jammu in which former minister Mula Ram, Hari Singh Chib, President DCC Jammu Rural, Uday Bhanu Chib, President J&K PYC and other senior Congress leaders were present.

Speaking on the occasion, the former Minister Mula Ram said that the miseries of the common man today are attributed to the wrong policies of the Bharatiya Janata Party Government at the Centre. Petrol and diesel prices are at all-time high having made history; LPG prices have doubled as compared to their prices before 2014 while the prices of vegetables, fruits, edible oils, pulses, eggs and other essentials are out of reach of the common man, they lamented.

Mula Ram asked the BJP government at the Centre to immediately initiate drastic measures in order to bring down the fuel prices as these have a direct impact on all the products.

Hari Singh Chib, in his address, said that in view of the prevailing scenario across the nation today, there is a dire need to counter the fallacious agenda of BJP which has been befooling especially the people of the Jammu and Kashmir by propagating false narratives of unprecedented development and transparency galore in this sensitive region of the nation. He said that despite assurance by Home Minister to be hollow its failure on this front can be well gauged from growing disillusionment and frustration among the unemployed youth of Jammu and Kashmir.

Rajinder Kumar Happy, Vice President DCC, said that Congress needs no certificate for what it has contributed to the country as every single citizen knows about the role which it played in making India a robust nation which it is today. He assured the senior Congress leaders for strengthening the base of Party by highlighting its achievements towards the nation for the last more over seventy years.

Later, impressed by the policies and programmes of Congress Party, dozens of youth from Gajansoo area joined the Party fold and assured to strengthen the party base at grass roots level.

Rejuvenation of VDCs will help in ending terrorism soon: Danish

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Danish Mishra, Co-Incharge Social Media Department and Prabhari Jammat Poonch Lok Sabha Seat BJP J&K said that MHA's decision to rejuvenate Village Defence Committees (VDCs) after changing their nomenclature to Village Defence Groups in Jammu and Kashmir will strengthen security edifice which in turn will help in wiping out terrorism sooner than later.

In a statement issued to media persons, Danish said that a lot has been done in J&K after the abrogation of Articles 370 and 35A to end the hegemony of those working against the interests of the country and those who were hell-bent to vitiate peace and tranquility.

Mishra said that by reviving the VDCs under changed classification viz VDGs, the centre has taken care of security edifice in far off areas falling in difficult terrains of the J&K UT as lately the desperate terror mongers after feeling the heat of security forces' tight grip have indulged in reviving terrorism in far off hamlets.

The BJP leader said that the rejuvenated VDGs will give new dimensions to combat against terrorism by ensuring security at village level and also giving confidence to people living in hinterland because it is not possible for the government to reach out to villages situated in distant places with small populations.

Mishra emphasised that VDCs is a time tested option before the government to contain terrorism and it is likely that this time the reviving of the same will act as last nail in the coffin of terrorism in J&K UT.

was impressed by the efforts of the students.

Speaking on the occasion, Raina said, "These days, children often don't respect or have time for the elderly and go about doing their own work. The school is doing a great job of reviving moral values in our society." He advised all the students to work harder in life to get sure success. He also narrated one or two incidents of his childhood to inspire the students. All the other special guests also stressed on the inculcating moral values besides education among the young generation.

The school's decision to celebrate Grandparents' Day is expected to bring about a positive change in the outlook of the present generation, they said. The Chairman of the School, Jasbir Singh, in his vote of thanks, appreciated the students and faculty members of the school for their efforts to make the celebration successful.
