To commemorate International Women's Day, GCW Bhagwati Nagar organised a series of events.

The programme began with a visit to the village (Om Nagar) adopted by the college. The NSS Volunteers and faculty members distributed

Students and faculty of GCW Bhagwati Nagar during visit to a village.

Menstrual hygiene commodities among the women folk of the village. Women oriented poems were also recited. Principal, Prof. Minnie Sharma lauded the students for their efforts and enthusiasm and said that we need to raise awareness about gender bias and take positive steps towards creating a Gender-neutral society. She stressed upon the fact that there is a plethora of women who have significantly contributed in different areas of life and the students need to take inspiration from them.

To culminate the programme a webinar on the theme "Break the Bias" was organised. The resource person for the day was Anissa Nabi, State Tax Officer at J&K Excise and Taxation Deptt, Jammu. She spoke elaborately about how women should always strive to carve a niche for themselves and maintain their individuality.

She deliberated on the fact that women need to develop inner strength, so as not to be sensitive about a people who try to pull them down or try to be of Social Sciences- Dr. Sindhu Kapoor.

The students of Department of Commerce and Department of History participated with great enthusiasm.

Govt. College of Engineering & Technology (GCET), Jammu on Tuesday organized series of events in order to commemorate International Women's Day- 2022 under the banner of Azadi Ka Amrut Mohotsav. The event held under the patronage of worthy Principal Prof. (Dr) Sameru Sharma. The event started with door to door campaign on woman empowerment in the nearby village of Chack Bhalwal which was flagged off by the Principal of the College.

The second event was debate competition on the theme "Gender Equality today for Sustainable tomorrow" organised by NSS volunteers. More than 60 students witnessed the event out of which nine students participated in the competition. The whole programme was convened by Dr. Veena Rani (HOD Humanities) and Er. Sanjeev Gupta (HOD Mech. Engg.) and coordinated by Dr. Raman Gupta (NSS Programme Officer).

The other staff members including Amit Pandoh, Neeraj Gupta, Meenakshi Gupta, and Tammana Ansari also aware the women on this eve.

NSS unit of GGM Science College held International Women Day with theme "Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow", recognizing the contribution of women and girls around the world, who are leading the charge on climate change adaptation, mitigation, and response, to build a more sustainable future for all here under the aegis of principal Dr. Ravinder Tickoo and the guidance of NSS PO Dr. Narinder Kumar. NSS PO Dr.Narinder Kumar impressed that Purple, green and white are the colors of International Women's Day, i.e Purple signifies justice and dignity, Green symbolizes hope and White represents purity. This day celebrate acts of courage and determination by ordinary women who have played an extraordinary role in the history of their countries and communities, he added.

The jury consist of Dr. Poonam Kamotra, Dr.R.K.Gupta, Dr.Neena Sharma and Dr. Fraz Ahmad appreciated the talent and blessed the volunteers.
