DSRS JU organises second G20 Public Lecture on 'India's Policy towards Neighbourhood'

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Department of Strategic and Regional Studies (DSRS), University of Jammu organized the Second G20 Public Lecture on "India's Policy towards Neighbourhood" in the seminar hall. Prof. Naresh Padha, Dean Academic Affairs, JNU, the Chief Guest, introduced the theme of the Public Lecture and invited Prof. Thapliyal to deliver the lecture.

Prof. Sangeeta Thapliyal, Chairperson, Centre for Inner Asian Studies, JNU, New Delhi emphasized on an important shift in India's policy towards neighbours when Prime Minister Narendra Modi invited all the state heads of South Asia in his swearing-in ceremony of 2014.

The speaker placed her lecture in the backdrop of India's global ascendance and how it impacts India's neighbours.

Prof. Thapliyal stressed that South Asian countries have to cooperate with each other on the issue of economic development, non-traditional threats, and calamities.

Interestingly, India did focus on these sectors with neighbouring countries; a recent example is the Covid-19 pandemic. Under Prime Minister Modi, India's political interests are guiding the country's foreign policy.

She maintained that India's neighbouring states will improve when they show willingness in this direction, as India, Nepal and Butan have shown remarkable progress at the sub-regional level.

Prof Thapliyal acknowledged that India was indeed a factor of domestic politics in Bangladesh and Nepal, but now India is trying to manage a shift in the neighbourhood by focusing more on in the sectors of electricity, roadways, railways, airways etc.

Prof Thapliyal further underlined that India's paradigm shift with development in focus is bringing dynamic change in the neighbourhood.

Earlier, Prof. Virender Koundal, Director, Department of Strategic and Regional Studies welcomed the dignitaries.

Dr. Mohd. Monir Alam presented the vote of thanks.

Vasundra Raje conducted the proceedings of the seminar which was attended by Dr. Surinder Mohan, Dr. Rajesh Chib, Dr. Ganesh Malhotra, Dr. Niharika Subash, Dr. Bhannu Pratap, Dr. Tirath Pratap, Dr. Ashwani and Dr. Tarsem Singh.

Awareness-cum writing workshop organised at School of Biotechnology JU

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Awareness-cum-writing workshop on 'Biotechnology Ignition Grant (BIG)' was held at the School of Biotechnology, University of Jammu as run of activities under the aegis of Azadi Ka Amrit Mohatsav.

Prof. B.K Bajaj, Director School of Biotechnology, University of Jammu, introduced Dr. Aatmeeyata and Aanchal Verma from Startup Incubation and Innovation Centre, Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur who were the resource persons for the programme.

Aanchal Verma enlightened the audience about the BIG grant which is the flagship program of the Biotechnology Industry Research Assistance Council (BIRAC).

This scheme is for potential entrepreneurs from Academia, start-ups or Incubatee (Researchers, PhDs, Medical degree holders, Biomedical Engg. Graduates) who have an exciting idea which may be in the nascent and planning stage and there is an unmet need for mentorship and initial funding. Also, the Biotechnology Ignition Grant would help to support and nurture these high-risk early starters and their concepts by providing a grant in aid upto Rs. 50 lakh for 18 months. Dr. Aatmeeyata conducted grant writing workshop wherein various aspects about writing a good proposal for easy funding by BIRAC were clarified. It was highly interactive session wherein large number of students, scholars and faculty members from different science departments took part followed by strenuous interaction and discussion.

Finally, the program concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Madhulika Bhagat.
