

2-day training programme on 'New Criminal Laws' concludes

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The two-day training programme on "New Criminal Laws" held for Judicial Officers, Prosecution Officers, Police Officers and officers from Forensic Science Laboratories of Jammu province including Research Assistants of High Court of J&K and Ladakh at Jammu Wing concluded on Sunday at J&K Judicial Academy, Janipur here. The second day's sessions were continued by Sakal Bhushan, an eminent jurist and son of the soil, now practising in Supreme Court of India, and Delhi High Court who dissected various additions, alterations and amendments in the three laws for benefit of the participants and analysed in detail vis-à-vis the old laws in light of the rulings of the Apex Court. The resource person deliberated that Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023 represents a path breaking and transformative overhaul of the legal framework in India. He stated that BNS, 2023 addresses various aspects, from offenses against women, children, and murder to tackling organized crime, terrorism, and exploitation. It removes outdated terms, introduces gender-neutral provisions, and aligns with evolving societal norms, he added. He underlined that the BNS embodies a progressive and comprehensive legal framework, reflecting a commitment to justice, fairness, and the evolving needs of society. It stands as a testament to the nation's dedication to shaping a legal system that is both robust and responsive to the challenges and values of the contemporary era, he asserted.

In the second and last session, the resource person educated the participants about the important changes made in the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam (BSA), 2023. He highlighted that most of the core principles that formed a part of India's evidence jurisprudence e.g., burden of proof, admissions, relevancy of facts, etc. remain unchanged under the BSA.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Yash Paul Bourney, Director, J&K Judicial Academy.
