Mycological Society of India, Chennai honours Prof Yash with Dr. K. Natarajan Memorial Award

Former Head, Botany Department Prof Yash Pal Sharma receiving award.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Prof Yash Pal Sharma, Former Head, Department of Botany and the Rector, Udhampur Campus, University of Jammu was conferred on the prestigious Prof. K Natarajan Memorial Award by the Mycological Society of India (MSI), Chennai during its Golden Jubilee 50th Annual Meeting and the international Conference on "Biodiversity, Biotechnology and Bioprospects of Fungi for Agricultural, Industrial and Environmental Sustainability" organized by Centre for Advanced Studies (CAS) in Botany, University of Madras, Chennai (Tamil Nadu) from March 6 to 08, 2024.

The award is constituted in the memory of Late Prof. K Natarajan a world renowned mycologist and one of the founding members of the CAS in Botany, University of Madras.

Prof. Umesh Rai, the Vice Chancellor, JU has congratulated Prof Sharma for bringing laurels to the University.

This honour was given to Prof. Sharma in recognition of his significant contributions to the study of wild mushrooms found in the north west Himalayas of Jammu and Kashmir and, Ladakh.

Significantly, using integrated approaches of morphology and molecular phylogeny, Dr. Yash and his team of research scholars have discovered and described more than 15 species of mushrooms that are new to science. In addition, a number of new mushroom species have been identified as new records for the Indian mycobiota.

Additionally, a number of native edible mushrooms with economic, ecological, and medicinal significance are being domesticated and cultivated by Prof. Sharma and his associates, as well as their biochemical analysis. Numerous prestigious worldwide publications, such as Persoonia, Mycosphere, Nordic Journal of Botany, Nova Hedwigia, CREAM, Studies in Fungi, Indian Phytopathology, Karstenia, Feddes Repertorium, etc., have published all of this work.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: A three days Skill Development Programme on OECD Principles in GLP was inaugurated at CSIR-Indian Institute of Integrative Medicine Jammu under CSIR-Integrated Skill Initiatives.

Dr Zabeer Ahmed, Director CSIR-IIM was the Chief Guest at the event while Dr SG Ramachandra, Chief Research Scientist, IISC Bangalore and Dr PV Mohanan, Scientist G & Head, Toxicology SCTIMST Kerala were the distinguished key resource persons.

Dr Zabeer Ahmed during his inaugural address endorsed the critical need of implementing the GLP not only in non-clinical studies but also in the exploratory and basic research which would have a strong bearing for the global acceptance of the data ensuring the reproducibility and uniformity.

He further said that the event is a significant step towards enhancing the quality, reliability, and integrity of laboratory research practices, aligning with global standards set by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD).

He also gave an overview of Institute's capabilities and commitment towards fulfilling SDG's by equipping laboratory professionals with the necessary knowledge, skills, and best practices outlined by the OECD, a prominent international organization committed to promoting policies

Central government improved road connectivity in border districts: Ravinder

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
NOWSHERA: Ravinder Raina, President, Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), Jammu & Kashmir addressed a massive public rally at Dabbar/Seri in Nowshera.

Ravinder Raina was accompanied by DDC member Sangeeta, BDC member Neena, Masood, Master Pichori, Anita Choudhary, department officials and other prominent persons. Member Parliament Jugal Kishore Sharma also joined on the occasion through online mode.

Before addressing a jam-packed rally, Ravinder Raina & Jugal Kishore Sharma laid the foundation stone of bridge connecting Seri, Dabbar and Jagoti. The bridge will be constructed at the cost of 9 Crore rupees.

While addressing the gathering, Ravinder Raina greeted Gujar & Bakerwal brothers and sisters for Ramadan month and said that a long pending demand has been fulfilled with the construction of this bridge. He said that the former governments only made promises but did not do anything for the development of the border district. He said that when he was an MLA, he released massive funds for the road connectivity and development of the area and it was during that period, that the demand for the construction of a bridge a Seri had come and now it is the BJP again, which made tremendous efforts for the construction of this bridge and got the funds released from the MP funds which shows that BJP does not merely believe in laying the foundation but also completing it.

Ravinder Raina said that the Central government has allotted massive funds for the improvement of road connectivity in the border district and added that it is because of this, that Jammu Poonch Road is being developed on the 4-lane pattern. He said that road connectivity has been improved on Mughal Road
