

Army sponsors young aspirants shine in Sainik Schools Entrance Examination

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: Sainik Schools are known for their rigorous selection process aimed at identifying potential candidates to become a leader and a military officer. Sainik School written exam requires thorough preparation. To give wings to highly motivated youths to clear prestigious Sainik School entrance exam, Indian Army conducted coaching classes to prepare the talented, potential students belonging to poor and rural background. The Indian Army sponsored coaching classes bore excellent results with 14 students including 5 girls of the Area of responsibility of Counter Insurgency Force (Romeo), clearing the written examination.

Re-orientation programme on Yoga and Herbal Plants concludes

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: Two-day Re-Orientation Program on Yoga for Medical Officers and Paramedical Staff organised by the Department of AYUSH concluded with great success. The program encompassed comprehensive training sessions, including a full day dedicated to understanding the significance of herbal plants.

District Yoga Coordinator and Nodal Officer for Herbal Plants in District Ramban, Dr. Masood Iqbal Zarger, delivered a lecture highlighting the importance of herbal plants. His expertise and insights provided invaluable knowledge to all participants.

The program aimed to enhance the understanding of yoga practices among medical professionals and paramedical staff, emphasizing its role in promoting holistic health and well-being. Furthermore, the session on herbal plants underscored their medicinal properties and the vital role they play in traditional healthcare practices.
