Third Batch of Capacity Building Programme on Small Business Development Units concludes at IIM Jammu

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The valedictory ceremony of the Capacity Building Programme on Small Business Development Units (SBDUs) held at the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu signified a significant milestone in the empowerment of small business owners across India.

Organized under the auspices of the Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, in collaboration with the Dalit Indian Chamber of Commerce (DICC), the ceremony celebrated the successful conclusion of a five-day program aimed at fostering entrepreneurship and economic growth.

Key dignitaries present at the ceremony included Prof. Jabir Ali, Dean Academics, IIM Jammu; Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Chairperson, Srinagar Campus, IIM Jammu; Dr.

IIM management along with participants during the programme.

Mahesh Gadekar, Chairperson of the Centre for Small Business Development, IIM Jammu; Dr. Vivek Sharma, CIO, IIM Jammu; and Naren Karunakaran, Consultant - Diversity, Sustainability & Small Business Development, IIM Jammu.

The program, which catered to 35 participants from diverse backgrounds across the country, including those from the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir, aimed to empower small business owners through comprehensive capacity building.

Dr. Mahesh Gadekar highlighted the program's significance, emphasizing its role in nurturing the entrepreneurial spirit and fostering economic development.

Prof. Jabir Ali reiterated the program's commitment to skill development and entrepreneurship, aligning with the vision of the Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship. He emphasized the program's objective of transforming informal businesses into formal enterprises through tailored capacity development, personalized guidance, and business incubation services.

Additionally, the collaboration with SIDBI was announced, promising new opportunities for budding entrepreneurs.

The establishment of 22 SBDUs across the Union Territories of Jammu and Kashmir, and Ladakh, aims to draw participation from entrepreneurs nationwide, contributing to the progress of these regions.

The valedictory ceremony also featured a presentation session by the participants, followed by an interactive session with Prof. Jabir Ali, Dean Academics, IIM Jammu, allowing for valuable feedback and insights.

Dr. Mahesh Gadekar expressed gratitude on behalf of the institute, concluding the program on a positive note.

The initiative, spearheaded by IIM Jammu, DICC, and MSDE, sets the stage for transformative growth, empowering entrepreneurs to contribute meaningfully to the socio-economic development of the nation.

In essence, the Capacity Building Programme on Small Business Development Units reflects a concerted effort towards fostering entrepreneurship, skill development, and economic empowerment, with the potential to drive positive change across communities and regions.
