Gaurav urges LG Sinha to champion Semiconductor Chip-making Project in Jammu region

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Gaurav Gupta, former General Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Jammu, has urged the LG Manoj Sinha to take up the matter with the central government to establish a chip-making (Semiconductor) project in the Jammu region. In a statement issued here today, Gaurav commended the Modi Government for its approval of India's chip-making ambitions, as evidenced by the greenlighting of three major projects worth Rs 1.26 trillion. The Tata group is set to lead two of these projects. Tata Electronics Pvt. Ltd (TEPL) has been granted permission to build India's first semiconductor fab in Gujarat's Dholera, in collaboration with Taiwan's Powerchip Semiconductor Manufacturing Co. (PSMC), with an investment of Rs 91,000 crore and CG Power, in partnership with Renesas Electronics Corporation, Japan, and Stars Microelectronics, Thailand, will set up a unit in Sanand, with an investment of Rs

7,600 crore. Additionally, Tata Semiconductor Assembly and Test Pvt Ltd will establish the second plant in Morigaon, Assam, with an investment of $3.26 billion (Rs. 27,000 crore), focusing on advancing semiconductor packaging technologies for automotive, EVs, and consumer electronics segments. Gaurav highlighted that the Modi Government, after the abrogation of Article 370, has been instrumental in transforming the union territory under the visionary leadership of PM Modi and LG Manoj Sinha by promising the establishment of major industries to bridge the development gap and tackle unemployment. Gupta emphasized that the technological advancements of the future continue to shape our society, and the establishment of chip-making projects is crucial in this regard. He further highlighted the similarities in the terrain of Jammu region and North East Assam, making it imperative for the central government to consider establishing a semiconductor project in the Jammu region as well. He said that the Jammu region has great potential for industrial growth, and the establishment of a chip-making project would not only contribute to the technological progress of the region but also create employment opportunities, attract investment, and further strengthen the development initiatives undertaken by the Modi Government. He urged LG Manoj Sinha to immediately take up the matter with the central government and urge it to establish the Semiconductor chip-making plant in the Jammu.

Rajeev Charak condemns Vandalism at Shiv Mandir Bahu Fort; demands strict action

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The Bahu Fort Development Committee is deeply saddened and strongly condemned the recent act of vandalism at the holy Shiv Mandir in the Bahu Fort area. Such actions not only disrespect the sanctity of the holy shrine but also aim to disrupt peace and harmony in the community. Rajeev Charak, the Chairman cum President of the Bahu Fort Development Committee, strongly condemned this cowardly act and urged the police and district administration to take quick and strict action against those responsible. He emphasizes that those who damaged the temple must face consequences to respect the feelings of the Hindu community and uphold the values of our ancient traditions. Charak asserts that the vandalism at the Shiv Mandir is a direct attack on Hinduism, Hindu sentiments, Sanatan Dharam and the principles of our religion. He stresses that the divine presence of Bhagwan Shiv cannot be limited to one place and such disrespectful acts won't be accepted. The Bahu Fort Development Committee is determined to ensure the safety of all religious sites and calls on the community to stand together against any attempts to disturb peace. In the spirit of respect for all faiths, the Committee reaffirms its commitment to promoting peace, tolerance, and understanding.

PM Modi's impetus reinvigorates cooperative movement: Rana

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Senior BJP leader Devender Singh Rana today lauded the unprecedented support of visionary Prime Minister Narendra Modi to the cooperative movement across the country, saying this has paved the way for its robust growth over the years. Speaking at lecture event 'Prosperity through Cooperatives', organized by JKUT BJP Cooperative Cell here this afternoon, Devender Rana said that the Prime Minister's steadfast commitment to empowering grassroots institutions and promoting cooperative enterprises has reinvigorated this vital sector, driving socio-economic progress across the country in general and Jammu and Kashmir in particular during the past five years. Convenor JKUT BJP Cooperative Cell Sanjeev Verma and the Co-convenors Ashok Singh Sambyal, Sham Lal Gupta, Vikrant Dogra and Parveen Sharma Chairman Citizen Cooperative Bank gave an overview on the cooperative movement with special reference to initiatives taken, especially during the past ten years, for promoting it to build a more prosperous and equitable Bharat for all. Rana said Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas, Sabka Prayas reflects the spirit of cooperative and collective culture that has not only been the driving force for inclusive growth but a motivation to work as a team to contribute towards India's enviable growth story. He referred to the immense potential of cooperatives in fostering growth and rural development, saying the cooperative movement can become a game changer in promoting entrepreneurship and self-reliance.

Senior BJP leader Devender Singh Rana being felicitating at a programme.

He said the BJP led government at the Centre has provided a strong impetus to the cooperative sector, enabling it to emerge as a key driver of rural prosperity. This movement is being promoted and carried forward by the Union Minister for Home and Cooperatives Mr Amit Shah in a mission mode, he added. "While the BJP is for encouraging the cooperative movement in a big way, the Congress has caused enormous damage to the cooperative spirit by using it as a political tool in sixties", Rana said, adding this has retarded the forward movement of this pivotal sector. However, the ethos behind the cooperative movement remains intact and there is no denying fact that this sector has a bright future, he said. Rana, who was chief guest on the occasion, said that cooperative movement unfolds vistas of opportunities for the smallest person, who can join together with least amount of capital and start their ventures for their own economic sustenance and contributing towards development of the country. With this avowed objective, the BJP has been reaching out to the last person in the society to promote cooperative movement. He said the self-help groups in Jammu and Kashmir are the shining example of cooperative spirit that has flourished after the thrust being given to this sector by the Prime Minister, he added. Devender Rana exuded confidence that the Prime Minister's unwavering commitment to further strengthening the cooperative sector will prove as catalyst for sustained development, inclusive growth and harmony between various segments of the society. Prominent among those present on the occasion included Sanjeev Sharma State Convenor Cooperative Societies BJP, Ashok Sambyal State Co-convenor, Sham Gupta State Co-convenor, Adv Chandermohan Sharma senior BJP leader & Tawi Cooperative, Praveen Sharma Chairman Citizen Cooperative Bank, Jyoti Swaroop Head Unati Multi State Vision, Darshan Choudhary President Sahakar Bharati, Bikran Singh Working President Sahakar Bharati, Vinay Mahajan Housing Board Society, Sanjay Gupta, Ashok Singh Manhas and others.
