DC Kathua inaugurates Kisan Mela as part of Mahashivratri celebration

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

KATHUA: Deputy Commissioner Kathua Dr. Rakesh Minhas on Thursday inaugurated a vibrant Kisan Mela as part of Mahashivratri festivities, illuminating the serene precincts of Airwan Mandir, Nagri.

The event witnessed an enthusiastic convergence of farmers, artists, and devotees alike, fostering a spirit of community and celebration. Commencing with an auspicious ceremony, the Kisan Mela served as a beacon of agricultural prosperity and cultural richness, showcasing an eclectic array of locally sourced produce and other products. Farmers from the surrounding regions congregated to exhibit their bountiful harvests, offering a kaleidoscope of fresh fruits, vegetables & grains embodying the essence of rural abundance.

Amidst the bustling milieu, artists showcased their talent, presenting a mesmerizing performance and exhibited the region's rich cultural heritage and artistic finesse, captivating the senses of attendees and dignitaries alike.

Inaugurating the festivities, DC Kathua lauded the efforts of the Airwan Mandir Committee in fostering community cohesion and promoting rural entrepreneurship.

Emphasising the symbiotic relationship between tradition and modernity,

Dr. Minhas underscored the pivotal role of such cultural celebrations in preserving the essence of our heritage while embracing the winds of change. Echoing Dr. Minhas's sentiments, representatives of the Airwan Mandir Committee expressed gratitude to the participants and attendees for their unwavering support, affirming their commitment to nurturing a vibrant cultural tapestry rooted in tradition and camaraderie.

Sheep Husbandry Deptt organises training programme under HADP

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: The Department of Sheep Husbandry Ramban, under the guidance of District Development Commissioner, Baseer-Ul-Haq Chaudhary organized a one-day Capacity Building-cum -Training Programme at Rajgarh for farmers, breeders, SHGs and FPO members here today.

The program, held as part of the Holistic Agriculture Development Programme (HADP), focused on promoting wool and pelt for effective processing and marketing. The initiative aimed at creating awareness about various components of the HADP programme, including achieving self-sufficiency in mutton production, reducing livestock mortality by improving infrastructure at highland pastures, and establishing FPOs for efficient processing and marketing of wool and pelt.

Continuing efforts, a prefabricated hut was also inaugurated at Ghari, Rajgarh, as part of the "Strengthening of Infrastructure at Highland Pastures and Enroute Migration" under the HADP 2023-24. This initiative aims to provide veterinary healthcare facilities for the migratory sheep and goat population, benefiting the community engaged in sheep rearing in the region.

The DSHO expressed gratitude to the district administration and the concerned ex-Sarpanch for their support in identifying and transferring suitable land for the initiative in a timely manner.

Highlighting the substantial potential for sheep farming in the district, the DSHO emphasized the significant role of the predominant farming community in fostering agricultural development in the region.

The event witnessed the presence of key dignitaries including the District Sheep Husbandry Officer Ramban, Dr. Shabir Ahmed, Veterinary Assistant Surgeon Chanderkote, Ex-Sarpanch and Sheep breeders.
