DSST organizes program on 'One Nation One Election' in Jammu

BJP President Sat Sharma speaking during the event.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Dogra Sewa Sambhal Trust (Regd.) organized a program on 'One Nation One Election' in Ward No. 56, Gangyal, Jammu, highlighting the benefits of simultaneous elections in India. BJP Jammu Kashmir State President Sat Sharma was the keynote speaker, while former Jammu Deputy Mayor Baldev Singh Billawaria, a key proponent of the campaign, was also present.

Sat praised the Modi government's initiative, emphasizing that conducting Lok Sabha and Assembly elections together would be highly beneficial for the general public. He stated that frequent elections create pressure on voters and disrupt development. Holding elections simultaneously would simplify the voting process, increase voter participation, and save both time and resources.

He recalled that India had held simultaneous elections from 1951 to 1967, and the BJP had pledged this reform in its 1984 manifestos. Billawaria discussed the ongoing awareness campaign in Jammu and Kashmir, where various social organizations, institutions, and community groups are being informed about the advantages of 'One Nation One Election'. He noted that public opinion has been largely positive regarding this initiative. He further clarified that while Lok Sabha and Assembly elections would be held together, local body and panchayat elections would remain separate.

Rajiv Sharma, President of the Trust, affirmed the trust's commitment to national interest and stated that all its members fully support the 'One Nation One Election' resolution. The event concluded with a call to mobilize support for electoral reforms to enhance governance efficiency and strengthen democracy.

true legacy of Shri Bhagwan Parshuram Ji, emphasizing that he was the revered Guru of Shri Bhishma Pitamah of Dwapar Yuga. His blessings extended to all Kshatriyas, including Maharaja Janak and many other great Kshatriya rulers. The Jammu team expressed gratitude to National President Pt Sunil Bharala for the excellent arrangements made for the Mahashivratri at Mahakumbh in Prayagraj, Uttar Pradesh. Thousands of devotees from Jammu & Kashmir, along with lakhs from across the country, participated in the sacred bath at Triveni Sangam and received blessings from Shri Bhagwan Parshuram Ji. The continuous Mahayaga of Shri Parshurameshwar, along with Vedic mantra chanting by Raj Purohiths of Ayodhya and other learned Pandits, provided devotees with divine consciousness and spiritual purity.

The Jammu & Kashmir unit has committed to executing the initiatives including organizing awareness campaigns and Langars during Shri Amarnath Yatra; displaying and promoting Shri Bhagwan Parshuram Ji's teachings at Katra, Pashu Dham, and various temples in the Jammu region; extending assistance to displaced Kashmiri Pandits; hosting awareness camps on Hindutva in Jammu, focusing on engaging the youth; and encouraging young leaders to embrace clean politics based on moral values and a strong sense of nationalism, in alignment with Prime Minister's vision of "Ek Bharat, Shreshth Bharat."

The Jammu team assured the National President that they will follow the guidelines set by Rashtriya Parshuram Parishad with full dedication. Pradesh Mantri Sh. Chandan Dutta reiterated his commitment to working with enthusiasm and thanked the National President for his patient hearing and support. Upcoming Visit to Jammu & Kashmir: National President Sunil Bharala assured the team that he will soon visit Jammu & Kashmir to further strengthen the Parishad's activities at the grassroots level.

The Rashtriya Parshuram Parishad remains dedicated to its mission of spreading awareness about the rich legacy of Shri Bhagwan Parshuram Ji and fostering a sense of Dharma and Rashttra Bhakti among the youth.

One Nation, One Election will strengthen democracy, ensure stability: Priya Sethi

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Senior BJP leader and former Minister Priya Sethi on Thursday strongly advocated for the implementation of the "One Nation, One Election" initiative, stating that it will bring stability, reduce election-related expenditures, and ensure seamless governance across the country.

The senior BJP leader was speaking at a programme organized here, where she highlighted the significance of this transformative reform, particularly for Jammu and Kashmir.

In the programme, MLA Bahu Constituency, Vikram Randhawa, Naresh Singh and many others marked their presence.

Priya Sethi asserted that holding simultaneous elections for the Lok Sabha and State Assemblies will not only streamline the electoral process but also prevent frequent disruptions in governance. "Frequent elections put a financial strain on the economy and divert the government's attention from developmental work. 'One Nation, One Election' is a visionary step towards efficiency and stability, ensuring that governments focus on policy-making and long-term planning rather than being in a perpetual election mode," she said.

Distt President South Naresh Singh, Mandal President Nitesh Mahahan, Chief patron Ashok Gupta, Chief advisor Shubehander Verma, President RC K S Samyal, VP TP Puri, Ex Distt President Rekha Gupta were present.

The former minister underscored the relevance of this initiative in the context of Jammu and Kashmir, which has seen political instability for decades. "J&K has suffered due to fragmented political processes and frequent elections. Implementing this reform will provide much-needed continuity in governance, ensuring that development projects are completed without unnecessary delays," she emphasized.

The senior BJP leader further highlighted that Prime Minister Narendra Modi's push for this electoral reform is in the national interest, as it will enhance voter participation, bring uniformity to the electoral cycle, and strengthen democracy.

"By conducting elections simultaneously, we can foster a more accountable and efficient government, which is essential for a progressive India," she added.

Calling upon all political parties to support this initiative, Priya Sethi said that electoral reforms should be seen beyond political lines, as they serve the larger interest of the nation. She reiterated that "One Nation, One Election" is a step towards realizing the dream of a "Viksit Bharat" and will pave the way for a new era of governance in Jammu and Kashmir.

Omar government should ensure uninterrupted supply of electricity and water: Shiv Sena

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Despite being a Muslim majority state, enthusiasm for the festival of colours, Holi, is at its peak in Jammu and Kashmir; the fun of Phagun is everywhere.

But the serious crisis of water supply in Hindu majority areas, Jammu city and surrounding areas is fading the colors of Holi as the biggest obstacle, people are forced to think that "how to play Holi with loved ones without water", stated by Manish Sahni, President Shiv Sena (UBT) Jammu and Kashmir unit.

While briefing the media persons at party's state central office today, Manish Sahni said that the crisis of water supply is deepening in most of the areas of Jammu. People of Hindu majority Jammu division are eager to play Holi but their enthusiasm has turned into disappointment due to lack of water supply.

There are many areas in Jammu city including Janipur, Rupnagar, Bantalab, Mutthi, Bhalwal, Akhnour, Mathwar, Bathindi, Chauadi, Sainik Colony, Greater Kailash, Trikuta Nagar, Fawwara Chowk, Purmandal, Veerpur, where the water supply situation remains worse. Local citizens are fulfilling their water needs with the help of water tankers. Despite all the assurances of the Omar government, the taps in the houses are dry.

Sahni said that the enthusiasm of playing Holi has cooled down due to the lack of water; even if we play dry Holi, water is needed for bathing. Sahni has demanded from the Omar government to ensure uninterrupted supply of water and electricity on the festival of Holi.

BJP Cadre must be active beyond elections: Kavinder

Says BJP's strength lies in its dedicated cadre

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Senior BJP leader and former Deputy Chief Minister Kavinder Gupta emphasized that the dedicated cadre of the party remains its real strength in ensuring victory in the upcoming polls.

He was addressing a meeting of party workers held at the BJP Headquarters in Jammu in view of upcoming political battles in Jammu and Kashmir.

The BJP stalwart asked the party functionaries to work at the grassroots level, connecting with the people and spreading awareness about the vision and achievements of the Modi government. He highlighted that BJP's policies have transformed Jammu and Kashmir, bringing unprecedented development, transparency, and good governance. "The BJP is not just a political outfit; it is a movement driven by nationalistic fervor and a commitment to public welfare. Every Karyakarta (worker) is the backbone of this mission, and their dedication will ensure a resounding victory in the upcoming elections," he stated.

Kavinder Gupta asked party cadre to counter the misleading propaganda of opposition parties, which have a history of deceiving the public for political gains. He emphasized that these parties, which once ruled Jammu and Kashmir, thrived on corruption, nepotism, and misgovernance, leaving the region in a state of despair.

He reminded the workers to educate the people about the dark era of favoritism, lack of transparency, and dynastic politics that hampered progress for decades.

He stressed that BJP's commitment to nationalism, development, and good governance must be effectively communicated to ensure voters make an informed choice in the upcoming elections.

Highlighting the achievements of the BJP government, Kavinder stated that Jammu and Kashmir has undergone an unprecedented transformation under the dynamic leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

He pointed out remarkable developments in infrastructure, including better roads, highways, and connectivity projects, which have boosted economic

The education sector has seen significant reforms, ensuring better facilities and opportunities for youth. Similarly, health services have improved drastically, providing modern medical care to all sections of society. With employment generation at the forefront, various government schemes have empowered the youth, bringing hope and prosperity to the people of Jammu and Kashmir, he added.

The former deputy Chief Minister advised BJP workers that their role should not be limited to election campaigns and political activities during poll times but should be a continuous engagement with the people.

He urged party cadres to be proactive year-round, addressing public grievances, assisting people with government schemes, and strengthening the party's grassroots presence. He asserted that BJP is a party of the people, and its leaders and workers must always remain accessible, responsive, and committed to the welfare of society.

He emphasized the need for BJP workers to be well-informed about government schemes, welfare initiatives, and public policies, so they can effectively guide the masses.

Kavinder Gupta concluded by stating that BJP's strength lies in its dedicated workers, and with their hard work, discipline, and unwavering commitment, the party will continue to serve the nation and lead Jammu and Kashmir towards a brighter future.
