Orientation Training on Stamp Act 1977 imparted to Sub-Registrars of Jammu Division

IG Registration J&K Bashir Ahmad Bhat and others during the programme.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A one day Training Program was held for Sub Registrars of Jammu Division here in the Convention Centre to equip them with legal aspects of the Stamp Act, Smvt. 1977.

Addressing the participants, Inspector General of Registration J&K Bashir Ahmad Bhat urged the participants (Sub Registrars) who also serve as Quasi Judicial Officers, to not limit their role to Sub Registrars only but also act as assessing officers under the Stamp Act, Smvt 1977. He said that it is first of its kind endeavor when a training program is being conducted jointly by Registration and Stamps Departments to secure State Revenues, plug in loop holes, if any, and ensure a vital revenue stream for the government.

The Training Program was attended by 60 officers including 02 Registrars, 15 Sub Registrars, 02 State Taxes Officers, J&K, 10 Inspectors/Sub Inspectors of Stamps Department J&K, Tehsildars of Registration Department and other dealing staff of the twin departments. The Resource persons from Stamps Department sensitized the participants through a power point presentation about various schedules of the Stamp Act, 1977 and emphasized on reading the contents of the deed rather than to look into the subject title of the deed. A detailed discussion on important Schedules of the Article was held and the queries raised by the participants were satisfactorily replied by the resource persons. Among others present were Additional Inspector General of Registration, Jammu Mansoor Aslam Choudhary; Registrar Jammu Natasha Kalsotra; Deputy Commissioner Stamps Jammu Shafiq Ahmad and Registrar Samba Subash Chander.

GDC Marh organises 7 Day NSS winter camp

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The NSS unit of Government Degree College Marh on Saturday concluded the seven Day Special Winter Camp organised on the College Campus under the aegis of Higher Education Department. The camp was organised to develop a sense of social responsibility, leadership, and teamwork among students through community service. The seven Day camp was inaugurated by Padma Shri Lalit Magotra and the College Principal Dr. Rakesh Kumar Koul on Feb 21, 2025.

The College Principal emphasized the importance of youth participation in social causes, while Prof. Anjana Chib, the Co-convenor of NSS Committee briefed volunteers about "Sustainable life style and NSS." She said NSS instills values of self-reliance, eco-friendliness, and community engagement. Volunteers undertook Cleanliness Drive on the college campus and in village Panchayat Dhateryal. An exhibition of Bird's picture with their local name was conducted by Prof. Sachin Kumar along with NSS volunteers.

The second day began with Cleanliness drive, where volunteers cleaned the campsite (Dhateryal) and surrounding areas. Dr. Shakun Sharma (HOD Sociology) delivered an insightful lecture regarding camp survey and awareness about Women Economic status, Empowerment and Education. An awareness lecture on "Road Safety" was followed by an awareness Rally in the adopted Village Dhateryal led by PTI Ravi Kumar. Principal Dr. Rakesh Kumar Koul also had thought provoking dialogue with the Volunteers regarding the "Road Safety".

A survey on "Women Economic & Educational status and Socio-Economic Status" of the adopted village Dhateryal was also conducted where in the NSS volunteers had a live interaction with the female residents of the area and understood the problems faced by them. They also performed cleanliness drive in Panchayat Ghar. Volunteers also raised awareness among the villagers about various social issues such as domestic violence, drug abuse, cleanliness and women rights etc. Cleanliness Drive and Shramdaan was conducted in the College premises as well as at the adopted Village Dhateryal by the Volunteers along with the Program Officer for the beautification of the surroundings. An awareness lecture on "Importance of Fundamental Duties" was delivered by Prof. Sachin Bhagat. Prof. Sachin Kumar Bhagat conducted a captivating story telling session, weaving tales that sparked imagination and creativity among participants. A campus and beautification drive was organized. The volunteers worked together to enhance the aesthetic appeal of the college. This initiative promoted environmental awareness, team work, and community pride. Volunteers also participated in the Intra-college Quiz Competition held on the occasion of National Science Day.

At the Valedictory Session, the College Principal congratulated NSS coordinators and volunteers for their dedication as well as hard work and urged the students to continue the spirit of volunteerism which made them responsible, compassionate and proactive citizens.

Senior volunteer Bobby Kumar Baitha of semester VI expressed that NSS has been a life-changing experience, making them more socially responsible, environmentally conscious and compassionate individuals.

GGM Science College organizes awareness lecture on AIDS

Faculty members and students during the event.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Red Ribbon Club of Government Gandhi Memorial Science College (GGM Science College), Jammu, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS), organized an enlightening awareness lecture on AIDS.

The event, held under the patronage of the esteemed Principal Dr. Romesh Kumar Gupta, and the expert guidance of Dr. Seema Rani Minhas, Convener of the Red Ribbon Club, was aimed at raising awareness on HIV/AIDS, its prevention, treatment, and the importance of public understanding in combating the disease.

The insightful lecture was delivered by Prof. Bal Krishan, Assistant Professor in Zoology at GGM Science College, Jammu.

He provided valuable insights into the causes, symptoms, and modes of transmission of AIDS. Prof.

Krishan also emphasized the significance of living a pure and healthy life, incorporating practices like yoga and spirituality to cope with the challenges posed by the disease.

In his address, Dr. Romesh Kumar Gupta, the Principal of the college, highlighted the global impact of AIDS and stressed the importance of spreading awareness, education, and responsible behavior to prevent its spread.

He emphasized the role of the youth in leading this charge and helping society make informed choices to safeguard health.

The event began with a warm welcome address by Dr. Neha Sharma, followed by a successful session facilitated with active assistance from the committee members, including Dr. Purshottam Singh Thakur, Dr. Bhikam Pal Singh, Prof. Sunita Kumari, Dr. Arti Sharma, NSS Programme Officer Dr. Rahul Kait, and Dr. Neha Sharma. Faculty members, including Dr. Ashaq Hussain and Dr. Arbaaz Wani, were also present to grace the occasion.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks presented by Dr. Sunita Kumari, who expressed gratitude to Prof. Bal Krishan, all participants, and everyone involved in making the event a success.

The session reinforced the critical importance of awareness in the fight against HIV/AIDS and encouraged a collective effort toward a healthier future.
