JAMMU: The journey to success is not an easy one, it requires dedication, perseverance, and a relentless pursuit of excellence.

Prize distribution functions-cum-Annual result days, celebrations of growth, learning, friendship, companionship and a year-long achievements were held in three segments on three consecutive days in the premises of JK Public School (JKPS) Panjtirthi.

The chief guests of the days were the Chairman of JK Educational Society, Raj Daluja and the Director of JK Educational Society Shashi Choudhary.

The programme commenced with the traditional Saraswati Vandana performance by a Jakiiian, as a tribute to Mother Saraswati-The Goddess of Knowledge.

On the first day, the most important part of the day, the kindergarten Graduation Ceremony commenced with the stunning performance by the little tiny tots of Upper KG dressed in graduation robes and caps.

It was indeed a joyous and memorable day for not only the little ones but also a proud moment for the Parents and the teachers as they witnessed their children receiving their KG Graduation Day Diploma.

A Jakiiian welcomed the audience on behalf of the Principal of JKPS Panjtirthi, Suman Banbah.

The Jakiiian expressed, "The Kindergarten Graduation is a special milestone in a pre-schooler's life. This ceremony is a great opportunity to celebrate their learning and recognize an important milestone in the student's lives. Kindergarten was your first lesson in friendship, and today we celebrate your bond."

All the students of the concerned classes came forward on stage consecutively and confidently, presented their experiences, morals, ethics which they had imbued throughout the session. They also talked about their achievements and the teaching methodologies of JKPS.

The Ist, 2nd and 3rd position holders of each class were honoured by the chief guest and the Principal.

The prizes for 100% attendance, well dressed child and well disciplined child from each class were also awarded.

Besides that, each child of each class was called on stage and blessed and honoured with captions as per his/ her talents, capabilities and qualities.

The achievers of sports arena were also applauded and awarded.

Parent of each awardee was invited on the stage to be a part of their child's proud moment.

Heritage School bids farewell to faculty members

Management and dignitaries during the event.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Heritage School held a memorable farewell ceremony on Saturday to honour some of its distinguished faculty members, marking the end of an era while celebrating the legacy they leave behind.

The occasion was a heart-felt tribute to teachers who have significantly shaped the school's journey over the years. While it was an emotional send-off, it also signified a new phase of continued guidance for the institution.

Among the key figures honoured was Ranjana Jamwal, who retired after two decades of dedicated service. As one of the founding teachers and the first Kindergarten Coordinator, Jamwal played a pivotal role in shaping the school's early years.

Her contributions were invaluable in establishing a nurturing and effective learning environment for students. While this marked the end of her tenure as a faculty member, Jamwal will always be remembered for her enduring influence on the school's development.

The ceremony also celebrated Vandana Jasrotia, the Headmistress of Heritage School, who has served the institution for an impressive 17 years. Throughout her tenure, Jasrotia has contributed significantly to the school's growth in various capacities, becoming a pillar of strength and leadership for both the school and its students.

While she retires from her role as Headmistress, she will continue to guide Heritage School in her new role as a mentor of the school, ensuring that her legacy and vision will continue to shape the school's future.

In addition to Ranjana Jamwal, the school also bid adieu to Varuna Sharma (PRT English), Parul Singh (TGT English), and Anjali Garg (PRT English), all of whom have contributed significantly to the academic and personal development of Heritage School students during their tenure.

The farewell was a day of reflection on the years gone by, with emotional speeches that brought tears and smiles alike. The ceremony was not just about bidding farewell but also about honouring the enduring impact these educators have had on generations of students.

Sunil Gupta, Chairman Heritage School, honoured

Jasrotia and Jamwal with a memento, gift, and citation as a token of deep appreciation and gratitude for their exemplary service.

The Chairman, in his address, expressed heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for Jasrotia and Jamwal, acknowledging their invaluable contributions to the school's success in its pursuit of excellence. He also commended Parul, Varuna, and Anjali for their dedication and efforts during their tenure as teachers. Wishing them success in their future endeavours, he extended his best wishes for their journey ahead.

Aakash Pradhan, Principal Heritage School, extended heartfelt wishes on behalf of the entire school community, wishing the transitioning faculty members good health, happiness, and success in their future endeavours.
