

Yudhvir Sethi holds Public Darbar to address public grievances

MLA Jammu, Yudhvir Sethi listening to public issues.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Senior Bharatiya Janata Party leader and MLA from Jammu East, Yudhvir Sethi, organized a public Darbar at Pt. Prem Nath Dogra Bhawan to directly listen to the concerns and grievances of the people.

East Mandal President Adarsh Jathiar, District President SC Moreha Vijay Gill, District Secretary Savita Anand, East Mandal Mahila Morcha President Preeti Sharma, Bajalta Mahila Morcha President Amita Rajput, General Secretary Harvinder Singh, Amphalla Mandal ST Marcha President Chaman Angral were also present.

The public interaction programme witnessed a large turnout of residents from different parts of Jammu East constituency, who gathered at the venue to present their issues related to civic amenities, development works, and other public concerns. Several delegations, social activists, and local residents participated in the Darbar and placed their problems before the MLA.

During the interaction, people raised issues related to road repairs, sanitation, water supply, electricity, drainage systems, and other infrastructural needs in their respective localities. Some residents also highlighted problems concerning public welfare schemes and requested timely redressal of pending issues.

Yudhvir Sethi patiently listened to the grievances and assured the participants that their concerns would be addressed on priority. He immediately took up several matters with the concerned departments and directed officials to take prompt action.

The MLA emphasized that such public outreach programmes help to strengthen communication between the government and citizens.

Speaking on the occasion, Sethi said that the purpose of organizing public Darbars is to ensure that people's issues are heard directly and resolved without unnecessary delay. He reiterated his commitment to the development of Jammu East and assured that continuous efforts are being made to improve infrastructure and public services in the constituency.

The MLA also encouraged residents to actively participate in developmental initiatives and maintain regular communication with their elected representatives. He stressed that collective cooperation between the administration and the public is essential for the overall progress of the region.

Several participants appreciated the initiative taken by the MLA and expressed satisfaction over the opportunity to directly convey their concerns. They hoped that the issues raised during the Darbar would be resolved at the earliest.

The programme concluded with Sethi reiterating that such public interactions will continue in the future to ensure effective governance and better service delivery to the people of Jammu East constituency.

Online Lecture on "Sri Aurobindo and His Poetry" organized at CUJ

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Central University of Jammu (CUJ) organized a special online lecture titled "Sri Aurobindo and His Poetry" under the Shiksha Shastrath Platform from the Department of Educational Studies. The lecture aimed to deepen students' understanding of the literary and philosophical vision of Sri Aurobindo.

In his introductory remarks, Prof. Asit Mantry conveyed his regards to the Vice-Chancellor Prof. Sanjeev Jain for his continuous guidance and encouragement in inviting experts from across the country to interact with students of the university. He emphasized that such initiatives provide valuable academic exposure and broaden students' perspectives on literature and philosophy.

The lecture was delivered by Dr. Shruti Bidwaikar. The program was coordinated by Dr. Mridu Sharma, who formally welcomed the guest speaker and introduced her to the participants.

During her lecture, Dr. Bidwaikar discussed the spiritual depth, mysticism, and philosophical insight present in Sri Aurobindo's poetry. She explained how Aurobindo's writings guide individuals toward inner transformation and spiritual awareness.

Responding to students' questions, Dr. Bidwaikar emphasized that Sri Aurobindo's philosophy encourages self-awareness, discipline, and spiritual aspiration to elevate human consciousness and achieve harmony between worldly responsibilities and spiritual growth.

The program concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Mridu Sharma.
