DC Jammu discusses action plan for power supply maintenance in summers

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Deputy Commissioner Jammu, Dr Rakesh Minhas on Saturday chaired a meeting to review the preparedness and operational readiness of power supply during the summer season.
 The meeting was attended by Additional District Development Commissioner Sher Singh; Additional Deputy Commissioners Vidhu Shekhar and Ansuja Jamwal and Chief Planning Officer Ajaypal Singh.
 Superintendent Engineer Jammu Power Distribution Corporation Limited (JPDCL), Sub Divisional Magistrates, Executive Engineers and other concerned officers attended the meeting.
 The meeting undertook a comprehensive review of anticipated challenges during the summer season, with particular focus on fault-prone infrastructure, areas susceptible to recurring power disruptions and infrastructure requiring preemptive maintenance and repair.
 The SDMs informed the chair of the ground situation in their respective jurisdictions, following which an in-depth discussion was held on drawing up a proactive and forward-looking action plan to ensure regular power supply across the district.
 Issues pertaining to smart metering rollout and the management of scheduled power outages were also deliberated upon.
 "The JPDCL must maintain active and continuous coordination with the concerned SDMs for prompt identification, redressal and mitigation of power-related grievances at the grassroots level," the DC stressed. He further directed to implement scheduled power cuts only after due public intimation through all available communication channels, ensuring that the public is not inconvenienced due to lack of prior information.

CUJ students participate in Rural Camp-cum-Educational Tour in Rajasthan

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The Department of Social Work at the Central University of Jammu organized a Rural Camp cum Educational Tour for second-semester students under its Field Work Education Programme.
 The six-day programme, held from March 8 to 14, was conducted in collaboration with Manthan Sanstha, Kotri, Ajmer, Rajasthan under the guidance of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof Sanjeev Jain and the Head of the Department of Social Work, Dr Nancy Mengi. The primary objective of the camp was to provide students with practical exposure to rural development and welfare initiatives being carried out by Manthan Sanstha. The programme was conducted under the theme "Exploration of Rural Communities and Development of Cultural Sensitivity." During the camp, students visited several villages including Pushkar and Sambhar, where they observed and learned about initiatives related to water conservation, pasture development, self-help groups, rural handicrafts, and social awareness programmes aimed at eliminating social evils in line with constitutional values. Students also interacted with community members through group discussions to better understand grassroots-level development processes. Founder of Manthan Sanstha Tejaram aware about the organisation its ongoing rural development projects in the rural Rajasthan.
