coaching staff, and the entire support system associated with the team. He added that this remarkable achievement has brought great honour to Jammu & Kashmir and has inspired countless young sportsper-

sons across the region. He further stated that the final match between the Karnataka cricket team and the Jammu and Kashmir cricket team was highly competitive and showcased the true spirit of the game. The J&K team displayed exceptional determination, teamwork, and sportsmanship to secure a memorable victory against a strong opponent. Sukhnandan Choudhary particularly lauded Sahil Lotra for his brilliant all-round performance in the final match. He highlighted that Sahil played a crucial role in the team's triumph by scoring a magnificent century under pressure and contributing significantly with the ball by taking an important wicket. He said that such performances in high-stakes matches demonstrate Sahil's talent, commitment, and potential to excel at higher levels of the game. Congratulating Sahil Lotra on his remarkable achievement, Choudhary expressed confidence that he will continue to work hard and achieve greater milestones in his cricketing career. He extended his heartfelt best wishes for Sahil's future endeavours and hoped that he would continue to bring laurels to Jammu & Kashmir while serving as a source of inspiration for aspiring cricketers throughout the region. The event concluded with warm wishes and appreciation for the entire Jammu & Kashmir cricket team for scripting a new chapter in the sporting history of the Union Territory.
