

Those responsible for KPs’ exodus, now shedding crocodile tears: Dr Jitendra

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
NEW DELHI: Taking a dig at certain political leaders, Union Minister Dr Jitendra Singh said here on Sunday that those who were responsible for the exodus of Kashmiri Pandits (KPs), are now shedding crocodile tears and demanding an enquiry into the genocide and killings of Kashmir Pandits.

He said, it is hilarious to see that after the release of "The Kashmir Files", some of the leaders who were an essential part of the ruling dispensation over the last 20 years, but are today either out of power or have defected to other political parties, now ask for instituting an enquiry without explaining as to why when they were at the helm of affairs for over three decades, even the day-light killers of Tika Lal Taploo, Lassa Kaul or Sgd Leader Khanna went scot free.

Speaking as Chief Guest at a programme organised by Vishwa Kashmiri Samaj, Dr Jitendra Singh said, it is a matter of vindication for BJP that some leaders of the then ruling parties are today speaking the same language which the BJP spoke even 25 years ago, but at that time these same leaders accused BJP of indulging in so called divisive politics.

He said, history bears testimony that the then ruling political parties and their leaders benefitted from Kashmiri Pandit exodus and the overwhelming atmosphere of terror that followed because it facilitated their continuance in power.

Dr Jitendra said, he and several other youth activists of his generation were eye-witness to each sequence of exodus beginning from the arrival of first batches of Kashmiri Pandits at Geeta Bhawan Jammu and makeshift Camps at Mishriwala and Nagrota, where they lived in most unhygienic conditions with the drains passing through the kitchen area and hardly any toilet facility available.

It was pathetic to see upper middle class Kashmiri Pandit families forced to live in a makeshift single room shed without any basic amenities.

Dr Jitendra said, he vividly recalls the summer of 1990 which was most harsh for the displaced Kashmiri Pandits who had never seen the summer of plains, as a result of which there were a series of Heat Stroke cases happening, and as a young medico, he and his colleagues would physically lift heat struck Kashmiri

Pandits and place them on ice-slabs.

On the occasion, the Union Minister also felicitated winners of a letter writing competition for KP Children who never lived in Kashmir' organised by Global Solace (NGO) Jammu with Vishwa Kashmiri Samaj and other partners sometime back.

The theme of competition was, 'My Kashmir, My Roots: My Dream, Sweet Home'. He also released the Calendar, Book and Panchang (almanac) prepared by Puneet Jotshi.

The event was also addressed by Chander Mohan, Mayor, Jammu and Raj Nehru, Vice Chancellor, Vishwakarma Skill University, Haryana.

Among those felicitated on the occasion included community hotelier Ramesh Kumar Kichloo, Shali Rupali, Vanshikha Bhat and Sagar Koul.

Vote of thanks was presented by Kanwal Peshin, Founder, Athrott Group.

Rakesh Gupta questions working of CCI President, warns 'No Confidence Motion'

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Former CCI President and President of Jammu Pharmaceutical Distributors Association Jammu, Rakesh Gupta has questioned Chamber of Commerce and Industry (CCI), President Arun Gupta for his alleged unconstitutional working /misuse of funds and cautioned him to take immediate corrective steps in larger interest of CCI Jammu or face 'No Confidence Motion'.

In a press statement issued here on Sunday, Rakesh Gupta said that besides sending a formal letter to Arun Gupta, President CCI Jammu and other members regarding minutes of 1st Executive Members Committee Meeting held in a phased manner & misuse of CCI funds including Grant-in-Aid, the copies of the same have also been sent to the Principal Secretary to Lt Governor and Principal Secretary, Industries &

Commerce along with Divisional Commissioner Jammu and Director Industries & Commerce for their information over the matter related to welfare of business fraternity.

As per the communication, the former CCI President, while referring to Minutes of first Executive Members Committee Meeting held on November 18, 2021, signed by Gaurav Gupta, Secretary General CCI, raised certain discrepancies with regard to decisions by CCI, which included non-circulation of List of Executive Members Committee till date, convening so called Executive Members Committee meeting in a phased manner citing COVID as reason, as there is no such provision in the Constitution of CCI, inordinate delay in holding Executive Members Meeting, no projection of exact money figures against 'Budget Allocations', details of approval for completion of unfinished portion of Chamber Building along with source of funds, ignoring the issue regarding pending approval of membership of 461 members as per deliberations in Court, surrendering back parking space to JDA in front of Chamber House, deliberately ignoring the suggestions made by former President over parking space issue, shelving plan for construction of a proposed JCCI CLUB despite contribution of approximately Rs. 5.5 crore by members etc.

The communication by Rakesh Gupta further reads, "I had participated in the first so called Meeting of the Executive Members Committee on September 4, 2021 just to caution you not to proceed any further without settling major pending issues of approval of membership of 461 members and refund of Proposed JCCI Club's Membership Fee to more than 500 Members but you are hell bent on destroying our prestigious Institution. Please note that your team has no right to use funds contributed by 461 members as Membership Fee to CCI Jammu as well as those contributed by more than 500 members as JCCI Club Membership fee, both totaling to almost Rs 4.5 crore approximately, lying in the different bank accounts of CCI Jammu. I am of the opinion that you are pushing yourself created agenda undemocratically and in total violation of the constitution of CCI Jammu. You must not forget that you were elected by getting 34 per cent votes in your favour in a triangular contest and majority of 66 per cent voters voted against you and that too because 20 per cent of members could not cast their valuable votes at that point of time because of a Court Order. I kept mum for the last one year so that the present team of office bearers gets ample time and free hand to prove themselves, but now I am forced to act and expose your nefarious designs so that the Prestige of CCI Jammu may not suffer further. Moreover, because of your complete failure in handling all the major issues that came up, I can't be a mute spectator anymore. I will never drag my own Institution to the court of law as done by you along with others in the past, but if you go on working against the larger interest of CCI Jammu and its worthy members, then I shall be left with no other option but to move a No Confidence Motion against you and other office bearers of CCI."
