

Inter-Panchayat Zonal Level YSS Cup concludes in Akhnoor

Participants posing for a photograph with officials at Akhnoor.

STATE TIMES NEWS

AKHNOOR: The Department of Youth Services & Sports Zone Akhnoor has organised Inter Panchayat Zonal Level Cricket Tournaments under the aegis of Youth Services and Sports Cup at Kaink Jagir and Maira Mandrian Panchayat concluded on Wednesday.

Principal Govt. Higher Secondary School, Sohal Dr. Madhu Sharma was the Chief Guest at the closing ceremony while Zonal Physical Education Officer, Akhnoor Tarsem Singh was the overall Incharge of the event.

Two semifinal matches were played wherein Kaink Jagir

Cricket Club defeated Bharda Kalan Cricket Club besides Nardi Cricket Club defeated Maira Mandrian Cricket Club.

In the final match, Kaink Jagir Cricket Club defeated Nardi Cricket Club by three wickets.

The Chief Guest advised all the participants to regularly take part in physical activities for their good health.

She also appreciated the department for conducting such types of activities at the zonal level. ZPEO explained to the chief guest about the academic calendar of the department and other centrally sponsored schemes for the promotion of sports culture among youth.

About 150 players drawn from different Panchayats of Block Akhnoor, Maira Mandrian and Bhalwal Brahmana of Zone Akhnoor participated in this three-day mega event which was organised on knockout basis.

Prominent about others were Tarseem Lal, Ashok Kumar, Madan Lal, Vijay Tangra, Jagdev Singh, Rajesh Kumar, Vikram Jamwal, Rahul Dev Singh, Vivek Sharma, Rinku Kumar, Suram Singh Choudhary, Staff members of GHSS, Sohal and all DYS&SS officials of Zone Akhnoor were also present on this.

Participants posing with officials from the Inter-Panchayat Zonal Level YSS Cup at Akhnoor.

DPS Udhampur students shine at national level in VivekaUtsavan

DPS faculty felicitating winner students.

STATE TIMES NEWS

UDHAMPUR: The students of Delhi Public School (DPS) Udhampur brought laurels to the school and UT J&K by winning number of prizes at national level in VivekaUtsavan organised by ASN Senior Secondary School & Indus Quality Foundation co-hosted the valedictory ceremony of VivekaUtsavan Online Inter National Inter-School Fest for the session 2021-2022.

DPITES have brought laurels to the school by securing various positions under distinctive categories.

Vanya Gupta from class V secured third position under Thematic Poster Creation, junior category, Muneesh Bhardwaj from class X secured second position under Thematic Poster Creation, Senior Category, Maanit Sarvasava from class IX secured second position in Vivekablog, senior category and Suhana Manzoor Shah from class X secured first position in solo dance performance, Senior category.

They got cash prize of Rs 1000 for their excellent performance.

Anshita Kudiyar (8th), Naina Khajuria (10th), Aastha Singh (10th) and Kanika(8th) also got certificate of participation.

Participants posing with MP Jugal Kishore and other dignitaries.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: In an colourful function, Member of Parliament, Jugal Kishore Sharma inaugurated Sansad Khel Samprada in the presence of District Development Commissioner Jammu, Anshul Garg at Khet Gaon, Nagrota, near here on Wednesday.

The 3-day Inter-Panchayat event in the sporting disciplines of volleyball, kabaddi and Tug of War is being organised by District Administration Jammu in association with District Youth Services and Sports Office, Jammu.

Jugal Kishore was the Chief Guest on the occasion, while Anshul Garg was the Guest of Honour. Both the dignitaries were accompanied by DDC Chairman Bharat Bhushan on the occasion.

Meanwhile, in the inaugural Kabaddi match, Panchayat Nagrota defeated Panchayat Dhok Wazirian in an easy contest by 9 points, while in the inaugural Volleyball match, Jagti Panchayat got the better of Khanpur 2-0 sets by (25-09, 25-12).

On the occasion, the Chief Guest distributed sports kits among various Panchayats for better use of youth.

While motivating the players to take part in sports and other allied activities, the Chief Guest said that sports serves for delight, for ornament and for agility.

He further said that sports and games are the best media to help youth not to derail from the mainstream, rather not to fall prey to drugs and other allied social evils.

The tournament is being executed by the Department of Youth Services and Sports, under the overall supervision of District Youth Services and Sports Officer Jammu, Sukhdev Raj Sharma and the matches are being officiated by a panel of experts from the Department of Youth Services and Sports.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He

also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the

students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He

also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the

students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He

also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the

students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He

also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the

students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He

also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the

students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He

also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the

students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Baisakhi, one of Punjab's biggest spring harvest festivals marks the foundation of Khalsa Panth (Sikh Panth) by Guru Gobind Singh. People all over India celebrate it in one way or the other. They offer their obeisance to the Lord Almighty, Vaisakhi marks the Solar New Year for Hindus.

The festival was celebrated with great zeal and fervour in JK Public School Kunjwani.

The whole air resonated with the foot tapping beats of Bhangra and Punjabi folksongs. Arshdeep apprised the students of the true spirit of Baisakhi. Young students dressed in colourful traditional dresses made the whole atmosphere look vibrant.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his speech, greeted everyone on this sacred occasion. He talked of the rich and varied cultural heritage associated with this great day.

He exhorted the students

to uphold the values and traditions of India and celebrate this festival in the spirit of brotherhood. He

also paid homage to Dr BR Ambedkar and advised the

students to imbibe the qualities he had, follow his principles and achieve greatness in life.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Bais