KPS expresses concern on increasing targeted killings in Valley

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Expressing grief on dastardly killing of one Satish Singh at Kakrin Kulgam, the Kashmiri Pandit Sabha (KPS) Jammu, during a meeting held in Jammu on Thursday under the leadership of its President K K Khosa has prayed for peace to departed soul.

Speaking on the occasion, Khosa said that the tragic killing took place on the day when a purported notice had become viral in social media directed at Hindu minorities living in Kashmir. "Although the veracity of the notice issued by a lesser known terrorist organization Lashkar-e-Islam threatening the minorities living in the valley with death and destruction in case they don't leave the valley was suspicious but it has sent a wave of fear amongst the community members living in valley, including PM package employees," he added. Khosa further said that a few days back, one Kashmiri Pandit namely Sunny Kumar, son of Pandit Janki Nath had a narrow escape when he was fired on from a point-blank range by terrorists in Shopian. "These targeted killings have sent shock wave within Kashmiri Pandit community living in valley and also living outside since their nears and dears live in Kashmir," said Khosa, urging the UT administration and the Government of India to take adequate steps to reassure minorities living in valley that no untoward incident would take place in future. "These incidents clearly show that the security establishments have not been able to check targeted killings. Killings have been taking place regularly on one pretext or another which is highly deplorable and disturbing. It has dented tall claims of the government that normalcy has returned to Valley. Sabha believes that jingoistic approach should be avoided while dealing with Kashmir and parameters that the Government affords about normalcy like increase in tourist footfall, huge quantum of development activities and large investment proposals, most of which are on papers," he added.

Those who attended the meeting included J L Zutshi, Ashwani Koul, S L Bagati, Ashok Khar, Subash Dhar and G J Kampassi.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Expressing resentment over rising attacks on civilians across Valley, especially the minority Hindus, as a day before one Satish Singh Rajput was shot dead by terrorists, a number of protestors led by Surinder Singh Gilli (Ex-tum of development activities and large investment proposals, most of which are on papers," he added.

Those who attended the meeting included J L Zutshi, Ashwani Koul, S L Bagati, Ashok Khar, Subash Dhar and G J Kampassi.

ists from Valley. Speaking on the occasion, Gilli said that innocents are being targeted in Valley and minorities are not safe there. "Targeted killing of civilians, particularly minorities, in Kashmir is aimed at creating an atmosphere of fear and damaging age-old communal harmony," said Gilli urging the Government to initiate necessary measures for safeguarding humanity, brotherhood and local ethos and values by taking stern measures against all anti-national elements. Sarpanch Dharminder Singh and Partap

Singh Jamwal also appealed to the Government for giving a befitting reply to perpetrators of terror attacks on innocent people. Those who participated in the protest included Komal Singh, Sameer Khajuria, Udhay Manhas, Sunil Sharma, Rajinder Singh, Mohan Singh, Vikram Singh, Bupinder Singh, Vishal Khajuria, Dushant, Ajeet Goswami, Brita Ram, Udhay Shubam Jambal, Aryan Veer Singh, Sudarshan Singh, Kuldeep Singh, Parveen Singh and Harbans.

Programme on 'Clean & Green Villages' held in Srinagar Distt

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: In order to accelerate the pace of achievements under Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in rural areas of the District, several programmes on "Clean and Green Villages" were conducted under Iconic Week Celebrations, as part of Gram Swaraj Month in all the Panchayat Blocks of Srinagar here on Thursday.

The programmes were held on the directions of the Deputy Commissioner Srinagar, Mohammad Ajiz Asad under ongoing Gram Swaraj month in Harwan, Khonmoh, Srinagar and Qamarwari Panchayat Blocks of the District as a universal call to action to end poverty, protect the planet, and ensure that by 2030 all people enjoy peace and prosperity. The activities ranged from cleaning of Water Bodies, Cleaning drives, awareness about discontinuing use of Single Use Plastics to Plantation. During the programmes, the public representatives along with local public ensured that the message of Clean and Green villages will be carried forward to all other residents so that cleanliness is ensured through community led initiatives like these in future as well.

Tourism Deptt advises service providers to desist from cheating, overcharging

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: The Department of Tourism has advised all tourism service providers to desist from any sort of cheating or overcharging from the tourists. The Department has made it amply clear that relevant provisions of J&K Registration of Tourist Trade Act-1978/2012 and other penal laws would be invoked in case of deviant stakeholders. A spokesman of the Department on Thursday said though it was good that we are witnessing a bumper season of tourist arrivals, it was incumbent upon the stakeholders and the Department to ensure that tourists are attended decently, properly and charged fairly for the services they utilize so that they return back with memories as beautiful as Kashmir is known for. In a specific complaint received from a tourist group, the Department has blacklisted the service provider from undertaking any commercial activity besides initiating other criminal proceedings against the concerned unit holders. The accused unit holders have also been detained for questioning by Tourist Police. Reminding the stakeholders of an old tagline of the Department-Sayaah aap kay husne sulook ka talib hai, uss ko khush karkay aap Kashmir ki khubsorti aur mehman nawazi mein char chand laga saktay hain-the spokesman impressed upon all the segments of tourism fraternity and their representatives to play their role in checking any incident of cheating or overcharging of tourists and live upto the expectations of highest levels of hospitality Kashmir has been known for centuries. The Department has issued an advisory to all the stakeholders at all the destinations in this regard. Meanwhile, the Department has constituted a Central Monitoring team comprising Deputy Director, Kashmir, Registration and Enforcement to randomly check the destinations to cross check strict following of prescribed rate lists and other SoPs notified. Separate monitoring teams have also been set up at all destinations comprising respective Resort Officers, representatives from Development Authorities and Tourist Police with a similar mandate. The teams shall provide their feedback and suggest measures for further streamlining the tourist related services, an order issued by the Director Tourism, Kashmir, Dr G N Itoo said.

Valley-wide Kharif campaign 2022 starts from Tangdhar

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

TANGDHAR: The Department of Agriculture Kashmir, on Thursday launched the valley wide Kharif Campaign 2022, to reach to the farming community of the region. Director Agriculture Kashmir Chowdhary Mohammad Iqbal inaugurated the massive campaign from the Border villages of Tangdhar and Tretwal. While addressing a large gathering of farmers, Director Agriculture Kashmir highlighted the objectives of organizing farmer outreach programs by way of the Kharif campaign. Director said that such valley-wide mass campaigns are intended to focus on farmers at the grass-root level and to take feedback from the farmers with respect to the impact of the implementation of centrally sponsored schemes by the department. Chowdhary Iqbal appreciated the farmer's participation in the program and urged them to come forward and work in a coordinated manner with the department for the overall development of the Agriculture sector. Director Agriculture enumerated various achievements by the introduction of a multi-dimensional marketing strategy for the marketing of agricultural produce of the region. He said that by this new marketing policy Agriculture produced from the region is being promoted in National as well as international markets. He asked the educated farmers to diversify their Agriculture activities as new marketing platforms are available to welcome their products. Chowdhary Iqbal reiterated that farm mechanization has played a big role in sustainable Agriculture growth. We have covered a large area in this direction but there is still a long way to go, he added. He said that the mechanized way of farming helps save the cost of cultivation ultimately leading to the socio-economic transformation of the farming community. Director Agriculture emphasized organic vegetable cultivation and said this type of crop production has a huge scope in our agro-climatic conditions. In the meanwhile, on the Directions of Director Agriculture Kashmir valley-wide Kharif Campaign is being organised where in Joint Directors of the department monitored the proceedings of the campaign at all districts of the valley.
