

Municipal Councilors protest in Udhampur, allege misappropriation of project funds

Councilors staging protest at Udhampur.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

UDHAMPUR: Councilors of Municipal Council Udhampur (MCU) held a protest in the premises of MCU against the dictatorial attitude and approach of MCU President and vice-president. According to a report, councilors of MCU assembled in the premises of council today morning and staged protest against President Dr. Yogeshwar Gupta and vice-president Surinder Singh Khalsa for misappropriatly and unevenly distributing the recently sanctioned development funds under mega project of their choice. Protestors said "we the councilors had suggested president to distribute funds equally to all wards @ 9.5 Lakh each so that concerned Councilor can utilize the same for the development of their wards as per their requirement and priority of works. But president and vice-president hatched-up conspiracy and diverted the funds for construction of swimming pool which is not need of common man but for privileged persons. They alleged that Udhampur city is badly reeling under immense water crises. They further said if this particular fund would have been utilized to enhance water supply instead of construction of swimming pool which is of no use. While contacted president MCU Dr Yogeshwar to comment he said as he was not available, councilor Vikram Singh Slathia, Jagdish Kumar, Sunil Proach, Ramneek Basin, Priti Khajuria, Sulkshna Magotra and Arti Verma were present during the protest.
