Director Agriculture expressed satisfaction and said that

Director Agriculture Kashmir Chowdhury Mohammad Iqbal during visit to Kanidajan.

"Kashmir based Agriculture produce, commodities are now available at national and international markets. Besides, our agriculture produce is finding its place in new national and international markets and this is very encouraging." Director Agriculture highlighted the importance of organic cultivation during his visit to the different areas.

Director Agriculture said that "Our climate is our opportunity and under the holistic development of agriculture special focus has been shifted to explore the climatic opportunities of the region. Interacting with the farmers director agriculture said that department is committed to provide seedling of different agriculture crops to the farmers of the valley round the year. He marked the importance of hi-tech polyhouses in the overall development of agriculture sector. Regarding cultivation of potatoes in the district, he said potato is an important crop and amid prevailing agro economic conditions we are trying to bring more acreage of land under its cultivation. The value addition and diversification of potato consumption has added more dimensions to its cultivation, he added. To meet this essential requirement, the Department of Agriculture has established a separate Potato Development Scheme, under which high-quality seed tubers are distributed among the farming community. The Director was accompanied by Deputy Director Planning Mohammad Younis Chowdhury, and other senior officers of the department.

Govt harassing daily-wagers, land donors: Ravinder

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: JKPC Chief Spokesperson Ravinder Sharma has criticized the UT administration for harassing the daily wagers and need based workers by making it mandatory to mark bio matric attendance twice daily, whereas they were not neither regularised nor their wages enhanced and are not paid regularly, too, the meagre wages.

In a statement, JKPC Chief Spokesperson said that the government failed to regularise them and revise their wages despite high inflation of prices of all commodities but on the other hand harassing these field functionaries, by putting so many harsh service conditions up on them, whose survival is difficult on a meagre Rs 9000/pm, which too is not paid them regularly.

The daily wagers and need based workers are supposed to work in respective beats allotted to them in the field but are being forced to mark bio matric attendance twice daily and have to visit twice to the offices to mark attendance.

The government should do justice to these poor people by engaging them as land donors as per policy prevalent at that time of getting land besides frame regularisation policy for all those who have rendered services of more than 10-15/20 years.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
GUWAHATI: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday evening concluded his tour of Assam by rolling out a series of railway projects across the Northeast, besides commissioning a methanol plant and laying the foundation stone for a bridge over the Brahmaputra river. Modi claimed that in the last nine years since his government came to power, the definition of connectivity had been changed bringing the northeast nearer to the rest of the country.

The prime minister also witnessed a mega-Bihu dance performance - which has made it to the Guinness World Records - where more than 11,000 dancers and drummers performed at the Indira Gandhi Athletic Stadium here.

"In the last nine years, we have changed the old definition of connectivity. It's now four dimensional -- physical, digital, social and cultural connectivity," he said. He said that in the past few years, youth from the region "have left violence and moved on the path to peace."

"The atmosphere of mistrust is disappearing from the North East, the distance between hearts is disappearing We need to move further closer," Modi said. The PM virtually inaugurated the five railway works along with other projects from the Indira Gandhi Athletic Stadium in Guwahati, where he is on a day-long tour. The new railway projects rolled out by him are Digaru-Lumding and Gauripur-Abhayapuri sections, while doubling of tracks between New Bongaigaon and Dhup Dhara was also inaugurated. Electrification of the Raninagar-Jalpaiguri-Guwahati, Senchoa-Silghat and Senchoa-Mairabari sections was also launched by Modi. The total cost of these projects is Rs 7,300 crore.

The Prime Minister also laid the foundation stone for the Palasbari-Sualkuchi bridge over the Brahmaputra river. It will be constructed at an expenditure of Rs 3,200 crore over the next 3-4 years.

Modi also virtually commissioned a methanol plant at Namrup in Dibrugarh by Assam Petrochemicals Ltd (APL) with 500 tonnes per day (TPD) teachers Kavita Jain and Sunita Kathuria.

India rapidly moving towards women-led development: Union minister Jardosh at W20 meet

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAIPUR: Union Minister Darshana Jardosh on Friday said India is rapidly moving towards a women-led development and stressed that the country's G20 presidency can unite the world in pursuit of common goals and well-being for all.

She was addressing a plenary session on grassroots leadership and entrepreneurship on the second and concluding day of the second Women 20 (W20) international meeting here.

Sandhya Purecha, the Chair of W20 India, said the meeting was critical for ameliorating the gender divide and achieving the objective of gender equity.

The panellists included Elvira Morasco, W20 Italy, who shared stories of successful entrepreneurial ventures founded by women in Italy that made a positive impact in their local community.

Bharati Ghosh, a former UN official, said that grassroots leadership is very significant by virtue of its origin at the grassroots.

Virginia Littlejohn, Founder of Quantum Leaps, Co-Head of W20 US Delegation, suggested creating a Women Entrepreneurs Finance Code and a policy framework to provide impetus to a women's entrepreneurship ecosystem.

After the plenary session, the W20 delegates had a closed-door meeting on the key priority areas of W20 and the communiqu drafting.

In the morning, a Yoga session was also organised for the delegates.

The W20 delegates went on an excursion to Amer Fort and Nahargarh Fort in Jaipur in the evening after the meeting was over.
