BJP MP Rajya Sabha Er. Gulam Ali during public meeting at Kathua on Monday.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

KATHUA: Bharatiya Janata Party MP Rajya Sabha Er. Gulam Ali on Monday participated in an Iftaar cum dinner party organized by Syed Choudhary, president Dodhi Gujjar Association and people of Chak Maheshi tehsil Marheon district Kathua.

MP Gulam Ali was felicitated by the people on his nomination to the Rajya Sabha and hoped that he would continue to work for resolving the issues of poor and backward. MP Gulam Ali speaking on the occasion said that Prime Minister

Narendra Modi has chosen one from amongst them to represent in the Rajya Sabha and he will continue to work with renewed zeal and determination to address to the issues of common man. He said that the focus of the BJP government is on pas-mandas, poor and backwards and various schemes have been initiated to better their lot. More than 80 crore poor people are being provided free ration while the corrupt and crooks are on the run, said Gulam Ali, adding that the government is working on twin strategies and crooks won't be spared while poor won't be touched. He said that Jammu and Kashmir govt under LG Manoj Sinha has announced to roll out a policy for providing land and houses to the landless while anti-encroachment drive is being reframed to free state/forest land from high and mighty encroachers. MP Gulam Ali said that Forest Rights Act is a path breaking initiative to provide rights to the forest dwellers.

This will be a game changer for the forest dwellers and tribals as it has inbuilt mechanism to provide land for construction of Community Centres, hospitals, schools and markets. He appealed the people to shun the exploiters and dynastic politicians who have done nothing for the common masses.
