

Maa Kushmanda – The Fourth Aspect of Navdurgas

Maa Kushmanda is the fourth aspect of Navadurga Goddesses. Devi Maa is worshiped on fourth day during Durga Pooja in Navratri. Mother Goddess created the whole universe in shpae of an egg called "Anda" with her little and light divine smile, so that Maa Durga is named Kushmanda.

The word Kushmanda is made of three other words that are "Ku + Ushma + Amnda" = Kushmanda". Here "Ku" is "Little", "Ushma" is "Warmth or Energy" and "Anda" is "Egg", means the one who creates the universe as "Little Cosmic Egg" with the energy of Her divine smile is called "Kushmanda". Goddess Durga is very happy in this incarnation and it is believed that when there was no existence of any creation or universe and there was the eternal darkness, which ended when Maa Kushmanda smiled. So Maa Kushmanda is known as the creator the whole universe. Maa Kushmanda is also named as "Adi Shakti". The core of Suraymandala (Sun) is the residence of Devi Maa. She is the only one who has the power and strength to live in the core of Suryaloka (Sun). Her body shines like the glowing Sun. All directions get light from Her Divine smile including the Sun God itself. Maa Kushmanda also known as "Ashtabhujia" as she is often depicted as having eight arms. In her seven hands she holds Kamandalu, Bow, Arrow, Lotus, a Jar of Nectar, Discus, and Mace. In her eighth hand she holds a rosary capable of giving eight Siddhis and nine Niddhis. She rides a lion who represents "Dharma". On worshipping Her ailments and sorrows are eliminated and life span, name, strength and health improved.

The Pooja of Devi Kushmanda on the fourth day of Navratri in Durga Pooja is having very importance. On this day, Yogis and Sadhaks or other dedicated devotees keep their mind in Anahata Chakra. Kushmanda represents Anahata Chakra in spiritual practice. Kushmanda Pooja during Navratri increases one's health and strength.

On the fourth day Mata Durga is worshipped in her Ma Kushmanda Swarup. She is depicted as seated on a lion, and possesses eight arms. She resides in solar systems and represents all knowledge. Seven types of weapons are shown in seven hands and prayer beads in her right hand. She likes the offerings of "Kumhde." Therefore her name "Kushmanda" has become famous. She is also known as 'Krishnamanda' and is believed to have created the universe,so she is called as Adi Swarup. She is also called 'Astbhujia'. Worship of Ma Kushmanda brings light into darkness and ignorance, gives true knowledge,destroys ego, disease, sorrow, depression, ignorance. "Kumbh Bhand" means to see cosmic vivacity in Pindi shape or knowledge of cosmic intricacies in human race. The abode of Mata Kushmanda is in Bhinaparvat

Om Dukha Hantraya Namah

Kushmanda Devi manifests eight arms, holding weapons and a rosary (Mala), she is seated on a tiger and her aura is like the sun. Special benediction: This aspect of Devi destroys sorrows of the mind and ego by harmonising the macro-universe with the inner micro-universe of the individual. This makes available all realms of the external universe to the individual internally through meditation. She is the birthing mother presiding over birth and rebirth. The abode of Kushmanda is in Bhinaparvat. We see streams of dark orange and golden light and golden drops that end in little drops of golden light entering the spinal column. These act like a spiritual surgical knife, destroying negatives and false ego positions.

- 12 black grapes
- 1/2 teaspoon orange zest
- 4 pieces strawberry
- 8 slices kiwi
- 1/2 medium muskmelon

Now, transfer the roasted amaranth seeds in a bowl and add in jaggery syrup. Mix well.

Now grease a pie tin with melted butter. Add the amaranth-jaggery mix in the tin. Then mix hung curd and orange zest in a bowl. Spread a spoonful of the hung curd mixture over the pie tin.

Next, arrange kiwi slices, orange slices and melon slices, top with strawberry pieces and black grapes. Keep the prepared tarts in the fridge to chill for at least 1-2 hours. Once done, remove from fridge and serve the chilled dessert.

Bhagavati : Embodiment of Divine Femininity

Bhagavati or Devi holds a prominent place in Hinduism, especially within the Shakti tradition, where she symbolizes the divine feminine energy known as Shakti. Shakti is considered the active force without which the male aspect, Purusha, remains dormant. Worship of Shakti is fundamental in Hindu practices, highlighting the importance of recognizing and honoring the divine feminine.

Devi, also known by various names such as Adi Parashakti, Ma Ambey, Mahashakti, or Devi Ma, embodies the limitless cosmic power beyond the universe. She is both the creator and destroyer, representing the dynamic force that sustains all existence. In Hindu mythology, Devi is revered as the Supreme Being, Para Brahman, from whom all other goddesses originate. Among her manifestations, Bhagavati is often depicted with eight hands and is considered a form of the powerful goddess Durga. Devotees celebrate her presence and seek her blessings during festivals like Dussehra and Durga Puja, acknowledging her role as the source of prosperity and protection.

Forms of Adi Parashakti

Parvati or Durga: Parvati, also known as Durga, is the original manifestation of Adi Parashakti herself. As Parvati, she epitomizes the qualities of love, compassion, and devotion. She is the divine consort of Lord Shiva and embodies the ideal of marital harmony and familial bliss. Parvati is revered as the nurturing mother who bestows blessings upon her devotees and protects them from harm. Her serene demeanor belies her immense strength, which she unleashes as Durga, the fierce warrior goddess. Durga is depicted riding a lion or tiger, wielding various weapons, and battling demons to restore cosmic order. Devotees invoke her during times of adversity, seeking her protection and courage to overcome obstacles. Parvati and Durga represent the dual aspects of femininity – the gentle and nurturing mother, and the fierce and protective warrior – reminding devotees of the balance between strength and compassion in their own lives.

Mahasaraswati: Mahasaraswati is not only the embodiment of wisdom and creativity but also serves as the patroness of learning and the arts. She symbolizes purity and clarity of thought, guiding seekers on the path of knowledge and enlightenment. As the shakti of Lord Brahma, the creator of the universe, Mahasaraswati facilitates the process of creation by inspiring innovation and intellect. Artists, scholars, and students invoke her blessings to excel in their respective fields, seeking her guidance to unlock their potential and express themselves fully.

Mahalakshmi: Mahalakshmi's influence extends beyond material wealth to encompass spiritual abundance and fulfillment. She is not merely the goddess of prosperity but also represents inner riches, such as peace, contentment, and spiritual growth. Devotees worship her to attract not only financial prosperity but also blessings for overall well-being and happiness. Mahalakshmi's radiant presence illuminates the lives of her devotees, instilling a sense of gratitude and generosity. Through her grace, individuals experience the joy of abundance in all aspects of their lives, fostering a deeper connection to the divine and a greater appreciation for life's blessings.

Mahakali: Mahakali embodies the fierce and transformative aspect of Adi Parashakti, symbolizing the power of destruction and regeneration. She is revered as the divine mother who destroys ignorance, ego, and negativity, clearing the path for spiritual awakening and liberation. Mahakali's dark complexion represents the infinite potentiality of the universe, from which new beginnings emerge. Devotees seek her blessings to overcome obstacles, conquer fears, and embrace change fearlessly. Through her fierce grace, Mahakali guides souls towards ultimate liberation, leading them from darkness to light, from bondage to freedom.
