NNK Jammu stages 'Ghalib at Quarantine' in New Delhi

STATE TIMES NEWS
NEW DELHI: A captivating portrayal of the life and legacy of Mirza Ghalib, the iconic Urdu poet of the Indian subcontinent, unfolded on the stage of Shri Ram Centre, New Delhi, by the team of Natraj Natya Kunj Jammu.

Titled 'Ghalib in Quarantine', the play witnessed two consecutive shows in response to overwhelming public demand in Delhi.

Crafted by Rohit Verma and helmed by director Dr. Abhishek Bharti, the production offers a vibrant narrative of Mirza Asadullah Beig Khan Ghalib's life. Set against the backdrop of the Covid crisis and sudden lockdown, the play intricately weaves the tale of a character grappling with confinement, drawing parallels to Ghalib's own historical predicament during the events of 1857.

Through poignant recitations of Ghalib's poetry, letters, and life anecdotes, the play illuminates fascinating facets of his persona and deep-rooted connection to Delhi.

An homage to Ghalib's poetic genius and a window into his era, the play unfolds his journey in a visually striking and immersive manner.

Energetically portrayed by actor Balvinder Singh, the character of Mirza Ghalib comes to life on stage, while music, masterfully composed by Vishal Pandita, forms the soulful backdrop, seamlessly blending contemporary sensibilities with the essence of bygone eras.

The meticulous attention to detail extends to the play's production design, with Virji Sumbli crafting evocative sets, Anu Thakur curating authentic costumes, and Aaditya Bharti orchestrating atmospheric lighting. Vocal performances by Vishal Pandita, Anjali Sharma, Shobhana Sharma, and Karan, accompanied by the rhythmic beats of tabla by Nitish Kumar and naut by Vineet Raina, further enrich the theatrical experience.

Capturing the essence of the performance through lens, Sheetal Raina's photography preserves the magic of the play for posterity. Ultimately, under the visionary direction of Dr. Abhishek Bharti, 'Ghalib in Quarantine' emerges as a poignant tribute to the timeless legacy of Mirza Ghalib, captivating audiences with its artistic brilliance and profound storytelling.

Mega SVEEP event inspires voters in border sub-division Hiranagar

STATE TIMES NEWS
KATHUA: The District Election Office Kathua orchestrated a monumental SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) event today in the Sports Stadium of Border Sub Division Hiranagar, marking a significant stride towards fostering voter awareness and participation in the upcoming Lok Sabha elections.

The event commenced with a spectacular display of unity as students from KV Hiranagar crafted an impressive human pattern echoing the resounding slogan of 'Kathua Vote for Sure', emblematic of the overarching SVEEP campaign. This initiative aimed to galvanize every eligible voter to exercise their franchise in the forthcoming elections.

Faculty members and students taking pledge.

Adding artistic flair to the event, students from Girdhari Lal Dogra Memorial Degree College Hiranagar captivated the audience with a riveting nukkad natak, showcasing the importance of electoral participation and civic duty.

The highlight of the event was the grand SVEEP rally, featuring participants from Polytechnic College, Degree College, and local school students parading through the bustling main market areas of Hiranagar town. The rally was ceremoniously flagged off by ARO Hiranagar Rakesh Kumar, who underscored the significance of voter engagement in the democratic process.

Addressing the gathering, SDM Hiranagar emphasized the pivotal role of electoral sensitization in shaping the democratic landscape. He reiterated the commitment of educating voters, particularly the youth, and ensuring inclusivity for all segments of society, including women, persons with disabilities, and elderly. He urged voters not to forgo the opportunity to exercise their fundamental right to vote and underscored their indispensable role in fortifying the democratic ethos.

The ARO Hiranagar expressed optimism that such concerted efforts would resonate with every voter, igniting a fervent desire to actively participate in the electoral process, which stands a testament to the vibrancy of Indian democracy.

Nodal Officer SVEEP, Neeraj Bhargava, CDPO Hiranagar Priya Lakshmi, Tehsil Hiranagar Shreya Sharma, EO MC Hiranagar Subhash Chandra, ZPEO Yograj Sharma and other concerned officers were also present on the occasion.

As Kathua gears up for the Lok Sabha elections, the resounding success of the Mega SVEEP event serves as a beacon of hope, inspiring citizens to embrace their democratic responsibility and uphold the principles of inclusivity, equality and participatory governance.

Gaurav calls on LG Sinha, submits Memo raising serious concern over rising drug peddling cases, youth deaths

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Gaurav Gupta, Secretary of Jammu Club and former General Secretary of Chamber of Commerce and Industry Jammu, met with the Lt Governor of Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory and raised serious concern over rising drug peddling cases and the tragic loss of youth in the region. During the meeting, he submitted a memorandum outlining his concerns and proposed solutions to combat this menace.

In the memorandum, Gupta commended the Hon'ble Lt Governor for his steadfast vision towards the development of Viksit Jammu Kashmir and the remarkable strides made in restoring peace and prosperity in the region. However, he expressed deep concern over the escalating cases of drug peddling, particularly highlighting recent reports of youth deaths in the Reshargarh locality of Jammu City due to drug-related issues.

Gupta emphasized the urgent need for effective measures to counter the proliferation of drugs, which he identified as a tool utilized by external forces to destabilize the youth of Jammu and Kashmir. He underscored the importance of safeguarding the future of the youth and proposed redirecting their energy towards the sports sector as a constructive alternative to drug abuse.

During the meeting, Gupta urged the Lt Governor to prioritize actions aimed at curbing drug peddling and ensuring the well-being of the youth in Jammu and Kashmir.

The Lt Governor gave a patient hearing to the issues put forth by Gaurav Gupta and assured to take necessary actions to curb the rising drug peddling cases in the Union Territory.
