Strengthen hands of PM Modi by voting BJP candidate: Khatana

STATE TIMES NEWS
SAMBHA: Seeking votes for Jugal Kishore Sharma (BJP candidate contesting Lok Sabha election from Jammu-Samba-Reasi Constituency), Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha), Gulam Ali Khatana on Wednesday said that voting in favour of BJP candidate will in turn strengthen the hands of PM Modi which will make our country strong and prosperous.

Addressing a public meeting at Nud area of Samba district, senior BJP leader Khatana asked the people to come out in large number on April 26, 2024 to cast votes as this is the only way to strengthen the democracy by electing the candidate of own choice to work for the progress and development of our areas.

"Keep the development works and the progress made in the country in the last ten years of PM Modi led government in mind before casting your votes and ensure that these developments and progress should continue further for five more years under the leadership of PM Modi," the MP of Rajya Sabha said.

He said that any vote casted in favour of some wrong candidate may push the nation to destruction and dark future for younger generations.

"The progress our country witnessed in the last ten years was not possible even in the long tenure of Congress led government as the leaders of Congress remained occupied in seams and scandals which made corruption a common practise in the country," Khatana maintained adding: "The Ayushman Card facility for taking care of health related needs of the people of the country upto Rs. 5 lakhs has even attracted international interest while indigenous COVID-19 vaccine, soft landing on moon etc have all made the countrymen proud."

He further said that J&K under the administration of Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha has seen tremendous developments in the last some years.

"Jugal Kishore Sharma in his last two tenures has worked a lot in this constituency and the people of his constituency are now bearing fruits of those developments," the BJP MP continued adding: "The third term to Jugal Kishore will ensure more developments in Samba-Jammu-Reasi constituency."

Khatana said that voting to BJP candidate overwhelmingly will give third term to PM Modi to helm the affairs of our country which will then touch new heights and there will be more developments and more employment avenues in the country.

Prominent among those present on the occasion were Parvez Iqbal Rana, Mohd Ashraf, Ch Roshan Hussain, UT President ST Moreha, Ch Mukhtiar, General Secretary JK UT, Ch Hassan Sardar, Vice President JK UT, ST Moreha, Ch Shokat Ali, Sarpanch, Incharge District Udhampur ST Moreha, Ch Mohd Javed, DP ST Moreha Samba, Ch Mohd Reyaz, Vice President, District Samba ST Moreha, Ch Manzoor Ahmed, Vice President Samba, Sarpanch Ramesh Singh, Numberdar Ch Shafi, Ch Parvez Iqbal Khatana and others.

Congress dividing country on name of religion: Abhijeet

BJP Spokesperson, Abhijeet Jasrotia briefing media.

STATE TIMES NEWS
KATHUA: Abhijeet Jasrotia spokesperson of BJP conducted a press conference on the manifesto of Congress at Kathua.

Criticizing Congress, he said that Congress is anti-Dalit & OBC the way they have declared to snatch resources from law-abiding citizens of the country & distribute it on the basis of religion is unfortunate, why those citizens who abided by the law & believed in the slogan of we two & our two should share their resources & properties with those who have 12 children don't you think it is injustice.

Abhijeet Jasrotia further added that today Mangal Sutra & gold of women are in danger like Sandesh Khali in West Bengal as Congress plans to snatch them & distribute them based on religion.

It is unfortunate that after dividing the country based on religion one more division is on the cards if Congress comes to power.

So, a word of caution was given by Abhijeet Jasrotia who hails from Kathua.

Others who were present in the press conference were Ravinder Slathia, Jagdeep Singh, Vikas Upadhyay, Harbans Singh, Rahul Dev, and Akshay Bharti.

BJP J&K Chief Ravinder Raina during public meeting at Bishnah.

these public meetings and rallies.

Ravinder, while addressing in these public meetings, said that the Modi government has worked for the welfare of the people, strengthened the nation and served the people, made the nation proud, and appealed to the people to vote for the Modi government to continue the development.

"BJP will win Jammu-Reasi Parliament seat with a record margin of votes", said Ravinder Raina while he thanked the people for their overwhelming response and enthusiasm in the rallies.

He said that Congress had destroyed the economy and social fabric of the nation, which was in shambles in 2014, Modi ji strengthened the nation in every sector to an extent, that today in 2024, India is one of the superpowers in the world. Peace has prevailed and development happened due to the policies of the Modi government.

"Congress party believed in divide and rule, promoted fight between communities, looted the resources of public and these ill practices were corrected by the Modi government. He said that earlier Army had to wait for the orders to return the fire in a gunfight initiated by Pakistan, but now in the Modi government, the Army won't fire the first bullet, but it doesn't need permission to fire the second bullet from our side", said Raina.

Raina credited the Modi government, Defense Minister

Rajnath Singh, MP Jugal Kishore Sharma, and local MLA Sham Choudhary, for these decisions and all the security-related decisions like 'Bunkers'. Today, the Border areas are secured and developed with wide roads, and improved facilities for electricity, water, and other basic needs, he said.

Raina also enumerated landmark decisions like the Ayushman Golden Card for the needy, Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao, Sukanya Samridhi Yojana, and other schemes. He said that Modi is dedicated to serving society selflessly, and has served the people as their 'Sewadar'. He appealed to the people of the border people to vote for the Modi government so that PM Modi could serve the needy and the poor in a more efficient way.
