Prays for well-being, prosperity of people of J&K, end to evils in society

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Chief Spokesperson of BJP Mahila Morcha J&KUT Ritika Trehan on Tuesday attended a Satsang going on for nine days to mark Navratri festival at Panch Mandir in Gandhi Nagar, Jammu, where she and other devotees prayed for the well-being and prosperity of the people of Jammu and Kashmir.

Chief Spokesperson of BJP Mahila Morcha J&KUT Ritika Trehan attending Satsang.

She also wished for an end to evils in society and the development of J&K. As a prominent leader of the BJP Mahila Morcha, Ritika Trehan has been actively involved in various initiatives aimed at promoting the welfare of the people of Jammu and Kashmir. Her participation in the Satsang event is a testament to her commitment to the region's development and her desire for peace and prosperity. During the Navratri festival, Ritika Trehan emphasized the significance of seeking the blessings of Mata Rani. She encouraged parents to instill ethical and moral values in their children, and to introduce them to India's rich culture and traditions. Ritika emphasized on preserving and passing on India's rich cultural traditions to future generations, instilling ethical and moral values in children to help them become responsible citizens. She encouraged children to seek the blessings of Mata Rani and understand the significance of Navratri. By embracing these values, children can develop a strong sense of identity, responsibility, and spirituality, ultimately contributing to the betterment of society, added Ritika.

Ritika underscored that embracing India's rich culture and timeless teachings can indeed guide individuals toward a pure and pious life. By internalizing these values, one can develop a strong moral compass, enabling them to make informed choices. Ritika stressed to cultivate empathy and compassion, foster a sense of unity and harmony with others and one can lead a life of purpose and meaning by aligning their actions with their values, promoting a sense of direction and fulfillment. Ritika further said that India's rich cultural heritage offers a wealth of wisdom. The Vedas, Upanishads and Bhagavad Gita provide timeless guidance on ethics, morality, and spirituality. The Ramayana and Mahabharata offer insights into human nature, duty, and righteousness. Schools of thought like Vedanta, Yoga, and Buddhism promote self-reflection, self-discipline, and self-realization. By embracing these teachings, individuals can navigate life's challenges courageously and honestly, added Ritika.

Exclusive J&K Wedding Jewellery Exhibition in Jammu from April 3

Director Kunal Said briefing media in Jammu on Tuesday.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The highly anticipated J&K Wedding Jewellery Exhibition is back for its 11th edition, promising an unforgettable experience for jewellery enthusiasts, brides-to-be, and collectors alike. Following its successful showcases in Jammu, Srinagar, Katra, and Udhampur, this prestigious exhibition will take place at Radisson Blu Jammu from April 3 to 6, 2025. This year, the event brings together four renowned jewellery brands—Silverlines, Fortofino, Semparia, and De Beers Forevermark—each presenting an exquisite array of designs that cater to every occasion. Whether you're searching for natural diamond jewellery, gold, Polki, Jadao, or Kundan pieces, the exhibition boasts over 30,000 unique designs, ensuring there's something for everyone. Kunal Said, Director of Silverlines Gems & Jewellery Pvt Ltd and Fortofino, extended a warm invitation to all jewellery lovers to explore this exclusive event. The exhibition will be open daily from 11 AM to 8 PM, giving visitors ample time to browse and select their perfect pieces, Kunal told reporters here on Monday.

"This year's edition features an array of remarkable offerings that jewellery aficionados won't want to miss. Zero making charges on all natural diamond jewellery, 0% deduction on old gold exchange, allowing visitors to swap their old gold for new jewellery without any loss, 21% assured appreciation on diamond jewellery buyback, ensuring long-term value, up to 30% off on diamond jewellery, and purchase gold at old rates, a rare opportunity to invest in gold before prices rise," Kunal stated. "One of the major highlights of the event is the Fortofino Exclusive Jewellery Lounge, showcasing never-before-seen masterpieces that took over eight months to design and craft. These exclusive creations will be available for viewing and purchase only at this exhibition," he said. Adding to the excitement, he added, visitors will have the chance to participate in a lucky draw worth Rs 1 lakh, along with engaging interactive games offering additional discounts and surprises.

With its wide selection of exquisite jewellery, exclusive offers, and engaging activities, the J&K Wedding Jewellery Exhibition 2025 is a must-visit for anyone looking to add timeless elegance to their collection. "Join us at Radisson Blu Jammu from April 3 to 6, 2025, between 11:00 AM to 8:00 PM, to witness and own some of the most breathtaking jewellery designs available under one roof," Kunal said.

SC/ST/OBC delegation meets Tribal Affairs Minister

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: All India Confederation of SC/ST/OBC organisations, Jammu & Kashmir Unit, on Tuesday called on Minister for Tribal Affairs, Javed Ahmed Rana and submitted a memorandum of demands. The memorandum delineated a series of critical demands aimed at addressing the grievances faced by the tribal population in Jammu and Kashmir. It demanded restoration of reservation in promotions as per the CAT and High Court judgment dated 06.03.2025 that has cleared the way for reservation in promotions. The delegation called for strict implementation of the SC & ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, restoration of SC Roster Point as per SRO-294, restoration of 5 year age relaxation for SC/ST candidates, filling of backlog vacancies for SC/ST/OBCS. Additionally, the memorandum emphasised maintenance of Reservation Roster Register to ensure correct implementation of reservation policies. The memorandum, while highlighting the plight of landless underprivileged communities, also demanded prevention of State land allocation to outsiders. Another pressing issue raised was conduct of a caste-based census to ensure proportionate allocation of reservations and resources. The delegation raised the issue of a SC member post in J&K PSC lying vacant since December 2022 and demanded fulfilling the same to safeguard the interests of the tribal population. The memorandum also raised timely disbursement of SC/ST/OBC scholarships, restoration of the Old Pension Scheme for Employees among other things. Javed Rana gave a patient hearing to the delegation and assured them that the government is abreast of their genuine demands and their concerns would be taken up for appropriate action. He said that various policies and programs have already been implemented aimed at fostering inclusive growth for marginalized sections of society.
