Ganga, Gharu Ram hold Public Darbar at BJP headquarters

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: In a continued effort to ensure prompt redressal of public concerns, Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leaders Chander Parkash Ganga, MLA from Vijaypur Assembly Constituency, and Prof. Gharu Ram, MLA from Suchetgarh, held a Public Darbar at the BJP Headquarters in Trikuta Nagar, Jammu.

Public Darbar witnessed the participation of numerous deputations and individual citizens hailing from different areas to bring attention to the issues affecting their daily lives.

Among the primary concerns raised by the attendees were unscheduled and prolonged power cuts, irregularities in ration supply under the public distribution system, scarcity of clean drinking water in many localities, and delays in execution of essential developmental works such as road repair, drainage systems, and sanitation.

Chander Parkash Ganga

and Prof. Gharu Ram Bhagat gave a patient and empathetic hearing to all grievances presented during the Darbar. Taking immediate action, the leaders issued written communications to the concerned departments and officials on the spot. These letters emphasized the urgency of the matters raised and pressed for timely redressal in the interest of public welfare. Listening to the grievances, Chander Parkash Ganga highlighted the BJP's unwavering commitment to the welfare of the people. He stated, "The BJP has always believed in listening to the voice of the common man. Our objective is to take people's issues directly to the corridors of power and ensure their swift resolution. We are a party that thrives on public trust, and it is our duty to live up to that trust through prompt and efficient action."

Prof. Gharu Ram echoed similar sentiments and underlined the significance of such public interaction platforms. "Public Darbars like this one act as a vital bridge between the citizens and their representatives. They not only allow the public to voice their concerns freely but also help us as leaders stay connected with the ground realities.

This two-way communication is essential for good governance and effective policy-making," he said.

HC grants pre-arrest bail to father-in-law in alleged rape case

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Justice Sanjay Dhar of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh High Court granted ad-interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner against whom charges were filed under heinous offence like rape by his daughter-in-law. The FIR also includes other offences, including section 333, 76, 115(2), and 352 of BNS.

Justice Sanjay Dhar, after hearing Advocate Aseem Sawhney, granted the anticipatory bail after noting that there is prima facie merit in the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, requiring the indulgence of the court in granting the bail.

During the course of hearing Advocate Aseem Sawhney submitted that the petitioner is 74 years old and at this age it was highly improbable that he would commit sexual assault on his daughter-in-law. The petitioner said that after the death of her husband (petitioner's son), the prosecutrix remarried and allegedly wants a share in the petitioner's property. He further submitted that civil litigation for injunction over property is already pending, and an interim order favoring the petitioner was passed and claimed that the FIR and criminal case were a pressure tactic to grab his property.

It was further contended that the prosecutrix introduced new allegations during her statement under Section 164-A CrPC, stating that after the death of her husband, the petitioner had committed forcible sexual assault upon her on two occasions, which were not originally mentioned in the FIR.

The court issued notice to the respondent to file a response within six weeks and giving notice to the prosecutrix through the concerned SFO.

The court in the mean time directed that in the event of arrest of the petitioner in the aforesaid FIR, he shall be admitted to ad-interim bail in anticipation of his arrest.

The Court directed that bail be granted on furnishing a bail bond of Rs. 50,000 with one surety together with conditions that he shall be present in the court when required and will not tamper with the evidence.

The petitioner sought anticipatory bail and also challenged the chargesheet filed against him registered at Police Station Nowshera. The FIR was lodged by his daughter-in-law, alleging that the petitioner attempted to outrage her modesty by forcibly touching her and that both the petitioner and his wife assaulted her and tore her clothes. A challan was filed for offences under Sections 333, 64, 76, 115(2), and 352 of BNS. The petitioner earlier applied for anticipatory bail before the Principal Sessions Judge, Rajouri, which was granted to his wife but rejected for him, leading him to file the present petition before the High Court.
