

Ramnavmi celebrated with religious fervour, devotion in Poonch

Shobha Yatra takes devotees on a spiritual Journey, Highlighting harmony, Religious Reverence

DC Vikas Kundal; SSP Shafkat Hussain and others during the programme.

STATE TIMES NEWS
POONCH: The festive spirit of Ramnavmi resonated vibrantly in Poonch as residents celebrated the occasion with great religious fervour and enthusiasm. A grand Shobha Yatra, organized by the Sanatan Dharam Sabha Poonch in collaboration with other religious organizations, commenced from Geeta Bhavan and traversed through the Main Bazaar, culminating at the Khakha Naban Mandir before returning to Geeta Bhavan. Dignitaries present at the occasion included Deputy Commissioner Vikas Kundal; SSP Shafkat Hussain; Tehsildar Haveli, Azhar Majid; Naib Tehsildar, Parkash; along with religious heads from the DGPC Poonch and Ramdas Sewa Society.

The Deputy Commissioner and SSP greeted the people on the eve of Ram Navmi, emphasizing the festival's significance. The Shobha Yatra was preceded by Jhankis (decorative displays) originating from several local temples, including Jhallas, Mangarh, Radhey Sham Mandir Dungs, Suthra Bawli, Guru Niwas, Praehin Shiv Mandir Power House, and Nai Basti, all converging at Geeta Bhavan to join the main procession.

The highlight of the Shobha Yatra was a beautifully adorned chariot representing Lord Rama, serving as the centre of attraction. The procession attracted a large turnout of devotees, who were welcomed at numerous arches along the route with offerings of refreshments and fruits.

Participants engaged in Bhajan Kirtan, culminating in their arrival at Khakha Naman Temple, where they performed prayers before retracing their journey back to Geeta Bhavan.

To ensure the safety of all participants, comprehensive security measures were implemented. The celebrations concluded with a Vishal Bhandara, further fostering a sense of community and devotion among all attendees.

Rajouri Resonates with religious fervour as thousands participate in Grand Ram Navami Procession

DC Abhishek Sharma offering prayers.

STATE TIMES NEWS
RAJOURI: The auspicious occasion of Ram Navami was celebrated with immense religious fervour and devotion across Rajouri, bringing together people from all walks of life in a spirit of unity and piety.

Devotees gathered in large numbers to mark the birth anniversary of Lord Ram with grandeur and enthusiasm.

The highlight of the celebrations was the grand Ram Navami procession, which commenced from the Sanatan Dharam Sabha Temple and traversed through the main market before returning back. The procession was graced by the presence of DIG Rajouri-Poonch Range, Tejinder Singh; Deputy Commissioner Abhishek Sharma and Senior Superintendent of Police Gaurav Sikarwar, who accompanied the devotees and participated in the celebrations.

Devotees chanted bhajans and hymns throughout the route, infusing the atmosphere with devotion and spiritual energy. The streets echoed with the sounds of conch shells, drums, and devotional songs, enhancing the festive spirit.

The Deputy Commissioner extended warm greetings to the people on the occasion and urged all to imbibe the values and ideals of Lord Ram, which emphasize truth, righteousness, and compassion. He praised the communal harmony witnessed during the event.

SSP also conveyed his greetings and expressed satisfaction over the peaceful and well-coordinated conduct of the event.

Later, the Deputy Commissioner also visited the revered Mamma Mata Temple in Kalakote and the Ram Temple in Nowshera to pay his obeisance. He was accompanied by ADC Kalakote and ADC Nowshera respectively during these visits.

The district administration and security forces had made elaborate arrangements for the comfort and security of the participants. First-aid stations, drinking water facilities, and traffic management were efficiently handled to facilitate hassle-free participation.

The celebrations culminated with special prayers and offerings at the Sanatan Dharam Sabha Temple, marking a successful and joyous Ram Navami in Rajouri.

Crime & Security review meeting held at DPL Poonch

STATE TIMES NEWS

POONCH: A comprehensive crime and security review meeting was convened at District Police Lines (DPL) Poonch under the chairmanship of Shri Shafkat Hussain, JKPS, Senior Superintendent of Police (SSP) Poonch.

The meeting focused on enhancing the quality of investigation and expediting the disposal of cases. SSP Poonch issued necessary directions to ensure professional and result-oriented investigation practices, emphasizing the importance of timely and efficient disposal in accordance with legal procedures.

In light of the prevailing security scenario and in view of the upcoming VVIP movements, detailed discussions were held to assess preparedness and reinforce preventive measures. SSP Poonch directed all concerned to remain vigilant and intensify surveillance activities in their respective jurisdictions to ensure fool-proof security.

Additional SP Mohan Sharma and all supervisory officers were present during the meeting and were thoroughly briefed on both investigative and security-related aspects. The officers were urged to maintain high levels of coordination, alertness, and responsiveness.

The SSP reiterated the commitment of Poonch Police to maintain law and order, ensure public safety, and uphold justice through proactive policing.
