Worst water crisis hits several areas of Sunderbani; press tankers, trollies to meet needs: Ravinder

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Former MLC and Chief Spokesperson of JKPCC Ravinder Sharma on Saturday highlighted the acute water crisis in several rural areas of Sunderbani, Nowshera and Kalakote in district Rajouri and demanded that adequate number of tankers, tractor-trolleys be pressed into service to meet the requirement of drinking water. The people in several villages complained about acute shortage of drinking water during tour of Ravinder Sharma to different villages of these areas. The people apprised that they have to purchase the water from private tankers to meet their drinking needs. Sharma regretted that government is charging water tax, tap tax for dry taps a? people are never supplied regular water in several rural areas. The rural population is being fleeced by the government without proper facilities of water and power, he said. As the power crisis has hit in Jammu and Kashmir, the water crisis has further deepened, so the LG administration should grant adequate funds to Jal Shakti Department to press sufficient number of tankers and tractors-trolleys to meet the essential need of people, he said.

Langer slams Mehbooba for advocating talks with Pak

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Sham Lal Langer, Convener BJP Trade and Industries Cell, J&K slammed former Chief Minister, Mehbooba Mufti for advocating talks with Pakistan. BJP leader said that the government should find out the ulterior motives behind Mehbooba Mufti's love for Pakistan because otherwise there is no point in starting talks with a country which is pushing in terrorists and arms and ammunition towards this side to dent the interests of the country. Sham Langer criticized Mehbooba Mufti for demoralizing the morale of security forces. He asserted that the PDP leader has no right to slur the security forces personnel who are guarding the borders despite number of challenges and never shirk in giving even the supreme sacrifice for the safety and security of countrymen. The senior BJP leader said that PDP President seems to be more interested in satiating the aspirations of Pakistani leadership than thinking about the pain and agony of those who are victims of rogue nation's state policy of abetting terrorism in India. He said that the BJP Government led by PM Narendra Modi knows well how to deal with rogue nation Pakistan and needs no advice from Mehbooba Mufti or anybody else. Sham Langer urged the Modi Government to find out the secret of Mehbooba's affinity towards the rogue nation as no other entity in the country is showing such a kinship which the PDP leader has been showing since the government under PM Narendra Modi has decided to end talks with the country's western neighbour.
