Kavinder meets Raj Thackeray; discusses development, public initiatives taken by BJP Govt in J&K

Senior BJP leader Kavinder Gupta calling on MNS Chief Raj Thackeray.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

MUMBAI: Senior BJP leader and former Deputy Chief Minister Kavinder Gupta called on Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) Chief Raj Thackeray here on Sunday and discussed unprecedented development and public welfare initiatives undertaken by the BJP Government in J&K.

In a threadbare discussion between two stalwart leaders, the developing political scenario in the UT of J&K remained at the core as Kavinder Gupta divulged the vibrant steps taken by PM Narendra Modi led Government in ensuring colossal development, peace and prosperity besides giving opportunity to people belonging to all shades of life to live in the UT with dignity and pride. The senior BJP functionary also detailed MNS chief about the progress made by the newly carved out UT after the abrogation of Article 370 on August 5, 2019.

He said that PM Modi has removed all the bottlenecks which were earlier hindering the development in the region and also being misused by some of the 'shrewd' politicians to hoodvink the common masses.

He also told Raj about the initiatives being taken under the leadership of PM Modi for bringing investment to bolster economy and create job avenues in the UT.

Besides, Kavinder also informed the MNS leader about improvement in security scenario and BJP government's initiatives in boosting tourism in both Jammu as well as Kashmir divisions.

Upon this, Raj Thackeray appreciated the Modi Government for bringing normalcy and investments for the overall development of Jammu and Kashmir.

He endorsed the policy adopted by PM Modi in J&K to change the course of life of people towards betterment.

Kavinder invited Raj Thackeray to visit Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory to see the sea change in the region so that he could compare it with the situation which he saw during his last visit.

Raj Thackeray assured Kavinder Gupta that soon he will pay a visit to Jammu and Kashmir, and take firsthand account of the situation besides enjoying the splendid beauty of paradise on earth.

Raj Thackeray also assured Kavinder that he will try his best to bring investment in the tourism sector of Jammu and Kashmir. He said that he will ask big-wigs of Maharashtra to visit Jammu and Kashmir and explore for opportunities to invest and flourish businesses out there.

Jakheni residents resent power & potable water crises

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

UDHAMPUR: A meeting of residents of Jakheni and adjoining to NHW locality was held under the chairmanship of former BJP leader Pir Gulzar Shah on Sunday in which participants highlighted their genuine problems including acute shortage of drinking water and electricity supply for couple of days back.

Speaking on the occasion, Shah said that their area is along with National Highway as well as within Udhampur periphery but village has no approach road nor drinking water supply pipe lines resulting people are facing inconvenience and are totally dependent on natural source of water (Bowli).

It was aware that much of the bread earner of the families of particular locality are labour class but their problems are increasing day by day. Shah shown deep concern over it and termed it most unfortunate as the local people and adjoining area of Udhampur town are being victimized and been ignored by all the elected representatives and District administration. He said interrupted power curtailment has increased the problems for poor and common man and forced them to lead miserable life. Shah assured the people that he will do highlighted their genuine issues with concerned quarters and local administration so that their issues can be redressal earliest.

Eid Shoppers, vendors rejoice as Chenab region's oldest & largest open-air market becomes abuzz after two years

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

BHADARWAH: After remaining completely deserted for two years in a row due to pandemic forced restrictions, Chenab valley's historical and largest open air market- Seri Bazar also known as Chovgan became again abuzz with Eid Shoppers and vendors this year after administration lifted majority of the restrictions.

Bhadarwah's famous open air market became alive on Sunday just before the festival much to the relief of the worried business community.

As the auspicious Eid-ul-Fitr festival is closing in, all the markets and shopping centres of Chenab Valley especially that of famous open market of Bhadarwah town have come alive with hordes of shoppers rushing for shopping a couple of days before Eid.

Famous open air market of Chenab Valley opened very early in the morning, as the scores of vendors were seen to occupy a place since mid-night.

Shoppers from different areas of Bhadarwah, Bhalla, Thathri, Chirala and Gandoh thronged Fashion houses, boutique shops, market places and kiosks across the city markets in huge numbers and shopped till evening. Shoppers were busy in purchasing readymade clothing, crockery, electronics, eatables and other goods.

In Bhadarwah Valley's tertiary commercial hub, markets remained jam-packed with Heavy rush of people in Bhadarwah market for Eid shopping.

shoppers moving one extreme of the market to another especially Seri Bazaar, Jamia Masjid Market, Khalro Market and Sadar Bazaar markets were abuzz.

Not only Muslims but a large number of non-muslims wait eagerly for Pre-Eid Shopping as one can get clothes, crockery, Readymade and electronics at cheaper prices than the routine days.

People especially Villagers keep on waiting for this festival whole year because they get Readymade, Crockery and Electronics at very cheap rates that too in an open market. They probably do shopping for the whole family and almost for a year.

Beside the excited shoppers, Shopkeepers and vendors are smiling from ear to ear as after a large slump for two years due to pandemic, their sale has increased many folds.

Apart from local businessmen, dozens of vendors from neighbouring states including Punjab, Ludhiana, Himachal Pradesh and Haryana are doing brisk business. A vendor from Ludhiana said that after two years of pandemic restrictions, we again established our stall in Bhadarwah. Thousands of people through open air market of Bhadarwah before Eid as they feel confident that they will get a better deal during these days. This is perhaps the reason that during these three days, sale is more than the entire year.

A female vendor Sumita from Punjab said that all of us are doing very good business at Bhadarwah as we keep waiting whole year for Eid festival, because we not only do good business but also enjoy the pleasant weather here.

Meanwhile locals criticized Administration and police for their failure to manage traffic in view of the huge rush of people to the markets of Bhadarwah especially from Seri Bazaar to Passri Bus Stand.
