Five hybrid LeT terrorists arrested, 3 involved in killing of Sarpanch

SRINAGAR/BARAMULLA: The Jammu and Kashmir Police Monday said they have arrested five 'hybrid' terrorists of the proscribed Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) outfit, three of whom were allegedly involved in the killing of a sarpanch in Baramulla district last month.

The arrests were made during separate police actions -two of them were held with arms and ammunition in the Srinagar city on Monday, while the rest three from

'Hybrid' terrorists are those who are not listed as terrorists but are radicalised enough to carry out a terror strike and then slip back into the routine life.

Those arrested in Srinagar has been identified by the police as Aamir Mushtaq Ganai alias Mussa, a resident of Khan Colony Chanpora, and Ajlan Altaf Bhat, a resident of Butpora Chanpora.

Won't rest till we root-out terrorism from Kashmir: Sinha

STATE TIMES NEWS

BUDGAM: Lieutenant Governor, Manoj Sinha on Monday reached out to protesting Kashmiri Pandits (KPs) at Sheikhpora, Budgam and stated that in the past few years security forces were having upper hand 'but' even shadows are suspects in Kashmir.

Sinha, however, was quick that the roots of militancy have been strong in the Valley and besides that the eco-system that provided oxygen to it remained ticking but his government is committed to root-out militancy from Kashmir soil.
