

J&K terror ecosystem on last breath: Rana

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Senior BJP leader and former legislator Devender Singh Rana on Saturday said the terror eco-system in Jammu and Kashmir is on the last breath due to pro-people and pro-development policies of the union government.

He said Pakistan-sponsored terrorists, supported by chosen few sympathisers including irrelevant and disgruntled political actors are destined to fail in their machinations on the face of strong resentment by the people and resolute strategy of the forces.

Jammu and Kashmir, especially the valley, is on the path of recovery, peace and normalcy due to pro-people and the pro-development policies of the Centre, pro-actively being pursued and implemented by the UT administration, Rana said welcoming Choudhary Showkat, who heads an NGO into the BJP at a function held in Nagrota constituency here.

He said the terrorists have

Dr Shashi Sudan Sharma, Principal Dean Govt Medical College Jammu was the chief

Guest of the said Function. She said in her inaugural address that the GMC Jammu is continuously producing good research and science and is contributing in the reforms of medical treatment for mankind at National Level.

She said good researcher has to be very good observer and analyser of the work.

HoD PSM Dr Rajeev Gupta, Organising Chairperson, delivered a talk on the basic aspects of health research,

Dr Seema Gupta HOD pharmacology, organising Chairperson delivered the lecture on Phases of the Clinical Trial.

Prof Dr Vishal R. Tandon, Organising Secretary of the said event delivered an elaborated lecture on Various study designs and how to choose a research question.

CME was very well attended by Various Faculty members,

Residents and Postgraduate

students of the institution.

DNB students of J&K across the state also participated in the said event in online mode.

Those against whom the FIR has been lodged include Vijay Saini, Sarpanch, Kheri, Vipin Kumar, Sarpanch Sarore, Pinka Sarpanch Chak Jawahar and Jatinder Kumar Sarpanch Ratnal with their accomplices.

Besides manhandling the employees of wine shop,

they have also threatened per cent occupancy in hotels and lodges.

This has raised hope among the stakeholders as also varied segments of the society associated with trade and tourism directly or indirectly, he said, asking how can this scenario be acceptable to those believing in boiling Kashmir for furtherance of their political agenda, which is why they are questioning the parameters of normalcy with barbaric acts of terror incidents that have claimed the lives of innocent civilians in recent weeks, triggering shock and grief across the nation.

Rana exuded confidence that the people will continue to support the initiatives of heralding peace and normalcy in J&K, which is imperative for overall development of all the regions and sub regions, irrespective of caste, creed and religion, as per the cherished agenda of Prime Minister Narendra Modi seeking Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas'.

He said peaceful Jammu and Kashmir will also lead to massive investments, a key to growth and job generation.

The BJP leader cautioned the people against myopic political leaders, who do not hesitate in sacrificing public interest for personal benefit to remain relevant in politics.

Normalised J&K is against their scheme of things and political maneuvering that has kept them closer to power corridors by indulging in deceit, deception and double speak, he said.

He said time has come to call their bluff and work for realising prosperous, peaceful and progressive J&K where equitable opportunities are available to all, with discrimination or appeasement to none.
