

Redressal of people's grievances Govt's first priority: Avny Lavasa

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Deputy Commissioner, Avny Lavasa on Saturday conducted an extensive tour of Block Marh and adjoining areas to get first-hand account of the public grievances and sensitize the officers of different departments, especially Rural Development Department about delivering benefits of government sponsored schemes at people's doorsteps.

The Deputy Commissioner gave a patient hearing to the PRI members, delegations and individuals and passed on the spot directions to the concerned officers for early addressing their genuine grievances. She assured that the high-lighted issues of public importance will be taken up with higher authorities besides all the pendency and public service delivery slackness shall be reviewed thoroughly. The Deputy Commissioner also convened a meeting with the district officers and enquired about the implementation of flagship government schemes including SWAMITVA, writing of Jamabandis, issuance of Domicile and other certificates, PMAY, KCC etc. The concerned official informed the Deputy Commissioner that writing of Jamabandis is almost completed and rest will be completed within the time limit. The Deputy Commissioner also impressed upon the officers to work with zeal to achieve the development targets and delivery of the benefits of schemes to the rural masses. She said that redressal of public grievances should be given prime focus.

She asked the officers to sensitize the people about the online services, especially regarding the revenue department to enable them to avail these services at their doorsteps.
