Glimpses of General knowledge Quiz competition being organized at JK Public School Panjtirthi.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: JK Public School (JKPS) Panjtirthi nurtures the inquisitive mind. To hone this talent of the students of class 1st, a General knowledge Quiz competition was conducted.

It was an interesting and effective way to ensure that kids actively participate to attain maximum knowledge. The students showcased their brilliance by rapidly answering the questions. Though some of the questions were very tricky, jankians tried to answer them with confidence. It was very informative and knowledge enriching competition for the participants. The Principal of JKPS

Panjtirthi, Suman Banbah congratulated the winners and remarked, "Learning gives creativity, creativity leads to thinking, thinking provides knowledge and knowledge makes us great." She further said, "In today's fast-paced world, staying updated with current affairs is crucial, and it profoundly affects all facets of life, including education, employment, and social interactions."

Rs 2.18 lakh penalty imposed on traders for FSS Act violation

STATE TIMES NEWS

KATHUA: The Adjudicating Officer and Additional District Magistrate (ADM) Kathua, Ranjit Singh, has imposed Rs 2.18 lakh penalty on erring Food Business Operators (FBOs) operating in the district.

The penalties were imposed for the sale of misbranded and sub-standard food items, in violation of the Food Safety and Standards Act-2006.

This enforcement action targeted multiple manufacturers, wholesale dealers and retailers found to be contravening the provisions of the FSS Act-2006. The ADM, acting as the Adjudicating Officer, emphasized the necessity of compliance with the legal standards governing the food industry.

Ranjit Singh issued strict warnings to the erring FBOs, urging strict adherence to the Food Safety and Standards Act and its associated regulations. He warned that future violations would attract even harsher penalties.

The ADM instructed the Enforcement Agency to take decisive actions against the violators under the directives of the FSS Act-2006.

Four Poultry farms gutted in Pangyari, Akhnoor

STATE TIMES NEWS

AKHNOOR: Four poultry farms in the Pangyari area of Akhnoor were completely destroyed by fire on Friday afternoon. The estimated loss runs into lakhs. The exact cause of the fire is yet to be determined.

Poultry farm owner Pawan Sharma reported that three of the destroyed farms had a capacity of 2,000 each and belonged to him, while one farm belonged to his associate Ram Ratan. Pawan Sharma mentioned that due to the intense heat wave in recent days, there were no chickens in the farms, but the maintenance equipment and feed stored there were completely destroyed.

He further stated that as soon as he received information about the fire on Friday afternoon, he rushed to the site and, with the help of the fire department, managed to extinguish the fire. However, due to the extreme heat, the fire had spread extensively, and by the time it was brought under control, everything had been reduced to ashes.

He has urged the government and the concerned departments to provide all possible assistance.
