District Level Silambam Competition held

Udhay emphasizes importance of sports in fostering discipline, teamwork

Participating players posing for a photograph with dignitaries and officials.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: District Level Silambam competition organized at Lower Roop Nagar Jammu North Assembly Segment, on Friday. Hundreds of enthusiastic students from various schools participated in the competition, showcasing their agility and skill in the ancient Indian martial art. On the occasion, Udhay Bhanu Chib, National General Secretary of Youth Congress was the Chief Guest.

In his address, Udhay Bhanu Chib commended the participants for their dedication and passion for Silambam. He lauded the organizers for their efforts in promoting this rich cultural heritage and providing a platform for young talents to showcase their abilities. He emphasized the importance of sports in fostering discipline, teamwork, and a spirit of healthy competition, particularly among the youth.

The senior Youth Congress leader underlined the importance of such competitions in nurturing young talent and preserving the rich legacy of Silambam.

He encouraged the participants to continue honing their skills and strive for excellence in the future. He urged the budding Silambam players to persevere in their training and embrace the values of sportsmanship and discipline.

Inter-School Zonal Level Competitions held to promote sports, creativity

DYSSO Baramulla felicitating a winner student.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

BARAMULLA: The Department of Youth Services and Sports, District Baramulla, continues to foster a culture of sportsmanship and creativity through month-long inter-school zonal level competitions.

Today marked another milestone with competitions held across three zones viz.

Nehalpora, Singhpora Kalan and Baramulla.

Zone Nehalpora hosted thrilling carrom and chess competitions for girls aged 14 and 17 at HSS Nehalpora. Over 50 students from both government and private schools showcased their skills and sportsmanship. The principal HSS Nehalpora emphasized the importance of sports in combating societal challenges like drug addiction and promoting holistic well-being.

In Zone Singhpora Kalan, an exhilarating inter-school painting competition was organized for girls under 14 and 17 years at HS Singhpora Kalan, fostering creativity and artistic expression among the youth.

Meanwhile, Zone Baramulla witnessed a burst of creativity as over 60 participants from various schools showcased their artistic talents in an inter-school painting competition held at BHSS Baramulla.

DYSSO Baramulla expressed his gratitude to the field staff for their unwavering dedication in organizing these events and maintaining discipline throughout. He encouraged continued participation from students, urging them to excel in sports and unleash their creative potential.

Cricket Camp from June 6

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
