

JSS Kathua hosts inter-school fancy dress competition 'Trashion'

STATE TIMES NEWS

KATHUA: Jammu Sanskriti School (JSS) Kathua recently organized an innovative inter-school fancy dress competition titled 'Trashion,' which creatively merged fashion and art through the use of waste materials.

This remarkable event was held under the auspices of Jammu Sahodaya, showcasing the school's commitment to promoting environmental awareness and artistic expression among students. The competition attracted enthusiastic participation from various schools, with students donning costumes crafted entirely from recycled and waste materials. The event aimed to highlight the importance of sustainable practices and the potential of upcycling in creating stunning works of art.

The event was graced by the presence of Vineeta Mahajan, the Principal of JMK International School and the Secretary of Pathankot Kathua, as the Chief Guest. Joining her was Dr. Vishakha Sharma, the Principal of APS Janglote, who honoured the occasion as the Guest of Honour.

The jury for the event featured distinguished personalities from the fields of arts and education. Simran Dogra, a lecturer at the Institute of Music and Fine Arts, brought her vast experience in artistic evaluation to the panel. Joining her was Vaneeka Gupta, TGT Art Education at KV Gandhi Nagar, known for her expertise in nurturing young artistic talents.

The panel was completed by Shivani Kotwal, Associate Professor and Head of the English Department at GDC Kathua, who contributed her extensive academic insights to the judging process.

Each participant's costume was judged based on creativity, originality, and the effective use of waste materials. The event was eloquently anchored by Palak and Arshiya, distinguished students of the 10th grade. Sargam Andotra from Jammu Sanskriti School Kathua, bagged first Prize while second prize was shared by Shanaya Sharma from APS Kaluchak and Imaya Dogra from Sai International School and third prize was won by Dhvani Sharma from APS Damana. Aahana from Tiny Scholar School got consolation prize.

The event not only encouraged students to think creatively about recycling but also fostered a sense of responsibility towards the environment. The 'Trashion' competition was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impact on all attendees. It underscored the vital message that waste materials, often seen as discarded and useless, can be transformed into beautiful and meaningful art. Jammu Sanskriti School Kathua, through this event, successfully blended education, art, and environmental consciousness, setting a commendable example for schools across the region.

Brilliant Jasia Akhter sparkles in Dhaka Premier Division Women's Cricket League Slams one century, two big fifties in 3 matches so far

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: J&K's only Women's Premier League (WPL) player and talented opening batter, Jasia Akhter sparkled in the ongoing Dhaka Premier Division Women's Cricket League, being played at Dhaka in Bangladesh.

Representing Mohammedan Sporting Club, Jasia scored a magnificent century and two half-centuries in the three matches she has played so far in this league. Jasia scored 102 runs 69 balls in the first match played on May 17, 2024 against Jabid Ahsan Sohel Cricket Club Women's Cricket Team and followed it with unbeaten 52 runs off 33 balls in her second match on May 20.

While continuing her batting brilliance, Jasia scored 75 runs off just 41 balls in the third match of Mohammedan Sporting Club on May 23, 2024 against Gulshan Youth Club Women's Cricket Team.

It is pertinent to mention here that Jasia apart from being the only cricketer from Jammu and Kashmir to be part of the prestigious WPL, has the distinction of representing J&K, Punjab, Rajasthan and Uttarakhand in the Senior Women's Tournaments, organised by the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI). Jasia has done remarkably well for all the State teams she has represented at the national scene.

As a team member, Jasia has the honour of guiding Punjab, Rajasthan and Uttarakhand to the knockouts and even to semi-finals and the finals in different formats of BCCI's Senior Women's Tournaments.

Now, Jasia has again decided to play for her home team for the 2024-25 season. Her home coming will surely boost the morale of J&K team.
