

JK Public School Panjtirthi celebrates Labour Day

Glimpses of Labour Day celebration at JK Public School Panjtirthi.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Labour Day was celebrated with full aplomb at JK Public School Panjtirthi.

Jakians commenced the celebration through an oration stating, "Workers have significantly contributed to nation-building through immense hard work. Labour Day not only aims to recognise workers' hard work but also to educate them about their rights and save them from being exploited.

Jakians performed a heart wrenching skit on "child labour".

Shelley Anand lauded the following slogans 'without labour nothing prospers', 'work is no disgrace, the disgrace is idleness' and 'labour-one of the greatest elements of society'.

The principal of JKPS Panjtirthi, Suman Banbah remarked, "All labour that uplifts humanity has dignity and importance and should be undertaken with pain staking excellence. Labour Day is a significant event that recognises and celebrates the basic contributions of labourers towards society. It is a day set aside for social and economic fairness for labourers, and it is the outcome of a protracted struggle for better working conditions and workers' rights." The Principal expressed, "Today's celebration is aimed at sensitizing the students about dignity of labour."

To recognize, honour and celebrate the hard work, dedication, and commitment of fourth class employees, the Principal commented on each worker's skills, qualities and strengths individually and distributed cash prizes to everyone accordingly.

She further added, "I salute to all the workers who work tirelessly every day to bring peace and stability to their families and societies."
