

Congress holds protest against Pathania's statement on IAF

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Jammu and Kashmir Pradesh Congress Committee (JKPCC) on Friday staged a protest in the Jammu North Assembly segment against BJP MLA R.S Pathania, strongly condemning his controversial and derogatory remarks targeting the Indian Air Force (IAF).

The protest was led by senior Congress leader and former Minister Mula Ram and was organized by JKPCC Vice President and Incharge District President Jammu Rural, Hari Singh Chib.

Addressing the gathering, Mula Ram expressed shock over the BJP legislator's baseless and irresponsible allegations against the Indian Air Force. He emphasized that such remarks not only undermine the morale of the armed forces but also insult the sacrifices of those who risk their lives to defend the nation.

"The armed forces displayed extraordinary courage and strategic strength in the face of enemy aggression. Instead of praising them, BJP Leaders chose to malign their honour - this is not just shameful, it is unforgivable," he said.

Hari Singh also slammed the MLA, stating that it is disgraceful for a representative of a party that constantly claims to champion patriotism to indulge in such anti-national rhetoric. "By making such false and demeaning statements, MLA has hurt the sentiments of patriotic citizens and questioned the capability of one of the finest air forces in the world," he said. Calling the statement a grave insult to national security forces, the protesting Congress leaders demanded immediate disciplinary action against Pathania and urged that a case of treason be registered.

"Attacking the Indian Air Force is nothing short of desh-droh (treason). The BJP must stop politicizing Operation Sindoor and come clean on its legislator's outrageous conduct," he added.

Bhadarwah gears up for Lavender Festival-2025

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

BHADERWAH: In the run-up to the much-anticipated Lavender Festival 2025, a team of local administration led by Additional Deputy Commissioner (ADC) Sunil Bhutyal on Friday conducted a detailed inspection of venue readiness at the Sports Stadium, Government Degree College Bhaderwah.

During the inspection, the ADC took stock of ongoing preparations and issued on the spot instructions to stakeholder departments to expedite the remaining works. The stress was laid on ensuring proper sanitation, electricity supply, drinking water availability, stage setup, decoration, parking facilities and other public convenience measures. The aim is to transform the venue into a vibrant and welcoming space for tourists, guests and local residents who are expected to attend in large numbers. The officers present on-site for the review included XeN R&B, Block Development Officer, Block Medical Officer and others. All departments were directed to work in coordination and ensure timely completion of their respective responsibilities, keeping in view the cultural and tourism significance of the festival.

MLA Ramgarh visits Historic Bamu Temple, announces road connectivity to promote heritage tourism

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMGARH: Dr. Devinder Kumar Manyal, MLA Ramgarh and Former Minister for Health and Medical Education, Jammu & Kashmir, visited the historic Bamu Temple, a culturally and historically significant site estimated to be around 175-200 years old.

Constructed by Bamu Shah, the temple is built on a small, square-shaped raised platform made of bricks. Its inner and outer walls are beautifully adorned with vibrant wall paintings depicting various episodes from the Ramayana and Mahabharata. Built parallel to the Abtal Temple, it stands as a symbol of the region's spiritual and artistic heritage. As per historical records, Maharaja Gulab Singh had granted several acres of land to Bamu Shah in recognition of his dedication and service.

During his visit, Dr. Manyal announced the construction of a new road that will connect the historically important sites of Chambyal, Bamu Shah Temple, and Abtal Mandir. This major infrastructure development aims to boost heritage and religious tourism, improve connectivity, and enhance local economic opportunities.

Connecting these sites with a dedicated road will open new avenues for tourism, cultural preservation, and economic development in the region," said Dr. Devinder Kumar Manyal.

Also present on the occasion were Former BDC Chairman Darshan Singh, Sarpanch Abtal Tajinder Singh, and Anil Gupta, who welcomed the announcement and stressed the importance of preserving such invaluable cultural landmarks.

SMVDU NCC & NSS Coordinators participate in 'Thana Diwas'

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

KATRA: In a significant step towards strengthening community engagement and fostering cooperation between law enforcement agencies and educational institutions, Dr. Varun Dutta, NCC Coordinator, and Dr. Rajiv Kumar, NSS Coordinator of Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University (SMVDU), actively participated in the "Thana Diwas" function organized by the Jammu & Kashmir Police under the Civic Action Programme at Police Post Kakryal.

The event was held in the presence of senior police officials including Paramvir Singh (SSP Reasi), Vipin Chandran (SDPO Katra), and Sh. Bhism Dubey, along with several representatives from nearby villages. The objective of the Thana Diwas initiative is to enhance police-public interaction, address grievances at the grassroots level, and build trust between the community and the police force.

Dr. Varun Dutta and Dr. Rajiv Kumar addressed the large gathering comprising local villagers, students, and police personnel. During their address, they provided an overview of Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University, detailing the various undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programmes offered across disciplines such as engineering, sciences, humanities, management, and social sciences. They emphasized the university's commitment to academic excellence, research, and holistic student development. In addition to academics, the coordinators also highlighted the various community outreach and social initiatives undertaken by the university through its NCC and NSS units. These include regular blood donation camps, tree plantation drives, the "Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan" (Drug-Free India Campaign), awareness drives against sexual harassment, and various cleanliness and health awareness campaigns. These initiatives aim to instill a sense of social responsibility and civic consciousness among students while contributing meaningfully to society. The event was meticulously coordinated by Sh. Rajat Magotra, Sub-Inspector, Police Post Kakryal, and his dedicated team, who ensured the smooth conduct of the programme and facilitated constructive dialogue between the police and the local population. The participation of SMVDU's representatives in the Thana Diwas programme was appreciated by the attendees and police officials alike. It marked a positive step toward greater collaboration between academic institutions and law enforcement bodies in addressing social challenges, promoting awareness, and encouraging youth engagement in nation-building activities.
