'BJP committed to work for development of Ramban'

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: Development complemented with good governance is the real strength of the BJP Government which has endowed the people with a life full of dignity, pride and peace across the Union Territory of J&K. This was stated by Pawan Khajuria, Vice President, BJP J&K and Prabhati BJP District Ramban while addressing a working committee meeting of BJP District Ramban. Neelam Langeh, senior BJP leader and former MLA

Ramban and other senior functionaries of BJP Ramban district were present. The meeting was held under the presidentship of Rakesh Thakur, District President BJP Ramban. Khajuria said that BJP has made distinction in the political arena by making people realize the true essence of delivering good governance and J&K becoming the first UT/State having a District Good Governance Index (DGGI) is the testimony to this fact and no other party can deny this fact under any circumstances. Pawan Khajuria said that BJP's plus point is its commitment to work honestly for development and prospects of BJP under such circumstances are bright as it has proved time and again that the sole aim of the party is delivering good governance and ensuring public welfare. Hitting out at regional parties like NC and PDP which are toeing one point agenda in the UT to defame BJP, he said that people are now well aware of the ill-conceived plans of these parties and are showing no interest in their deceitful tactics of trapping electorate again and again using divisive and deceitful tactics to obtain majority.

Neelam Langeh asked the party workers to start comprehensive exercise in their respective pockets to dispense information about schemes and policies of BJP which have changed lives of many and helped in fighting poverty and other hardships of people.

Addressing Dharna at tehsil office Sunderbani, Sharma blamed the centre government of trying to crush the voice of the youth by involving army and administration to terrorize
